This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

DUTIFULLY AND REVERENTLY

INSCRIBED.

PREFACE.

SINCE holy matrimony was ordained in great part "for the mutual society, help, and comfort, that the one ought to have of the other, both in prosperity and adversity," it would not seem that many words were necessary to persuade all married persons who desire "to live together in godly love and honesty," and to "see their children christianly and virtuously brought up," how greatly the practice of praying together alone, once in the day at least, would conduce to their mutual help, comfort, and encouragement in holy living. Such persons should be well aware of the numerous daily causes, which would render confession, and prayers in common for pardon, and for aid, as well in the regulation of their behaviour towards each other, as in the Christian government and training of their children and households, an exercise most comfortable and refreshing to the soul. To these, and to all who may be disposed to commence so desirable a practice, the following manual is offered, not without a hope that it may be found to assist their devotions: for which indeed some form seems absolutely indispensable.

The little book now presented to the reader was formed in the first edition out of a much larger collection of prayers, the result of several years' gradual accumulation, entirely for private use; collects having been added from time to time from various sources, as they were found suitable for the immediate purpose, while a few were compiled or written for special requirement. It was not till it became necessary for the convenience of use to re-arrange the whole, that in the progress of this employment the thought occurred that these prayers might be useful to others; and with this object in view, they were subsequently the more carefully selected and prepared. And here the valuable suggestions of a judicious and experienced friend, now Archdeacon of Bedford, who most kindly consented to revise the press, are again, after a lapse of seventeen years, thankfully acknowledged.

To those who are acquainted with the ancient Liturgies, it will not appear surprising that all the prayers of a general nature, as Confession, Intercession, Thanksgiving, were taken exclusively from those rich treasuries of Catholic devotion; to which indeed our own incomparable Liturgy is so much indebted, as to have led the learned Dean Comber to say, in his excellent and just encomium of it, that "most of the words and phrases being taken out of the Holy Scriptures, the rest are the expressions of the first and purest ages; and in the opinion of the most impartial and learned Grotius, (who was no member of, nor had any obligation to this Church,) the English Liturgy comes so near to the primitive pattern, that none of the reformed churches can compare with it[a]."

The collects in this book which are suited exclusively for the use of married persons and parents, were selected chiefly from English Authors, among whose works however they are but sparingly to be found.

The use of separate collects, each confined to its own, or to very kindred subjects, was deemed preferable to one prayer of greater length, necessarily embracing a variety of distinct subjects, whether more or less mixed together, or in succession. And it need scarcely be said that for this form an unimpeachable authority, as well as an admirable model, presented itself in the Book of Common Prayer, suggesting at once the most obvious and necessary subjects, and the succession in which they should stand: Confession, the Lord's Prayer, Petitions for Divine Guidance and Protection, a Prayer for each other, Intercession for children and others, Thanksgiving, and a Prayer of Benediction.

It will be obvious, since the principal Course of prayer in this book is adapted for one part of the day only, (the evening having been selected as the period least liable to interruption,) that it is by no means intended or calculated to supersede the obligation under which every Christian father or master of a family is laid, of practising daily family devotion, as well by the reading (and exposition if it may be) of a portion of Holy Scripture, as by the offering of prayer with his household—("as for me and my house we will serve the Lord[b];") far less the still more imperative duty and privilege of strictly private prayer, and daily self-examination,—that searching of heart, that inward discipline of the will, that earnest and sincere oblation and abandonment of the soul to God, with which no intercommunion of thought and feeling between two natures, however close and near, not even the oneness of aim, and hope, and faith, with which the marriage bond is often blessed and strengthened, must be allowed to interfere.

Although, however, the principal aim of this publication is to assist the joint devotions of husbands and wives, it was thought that it would add to its convenience to insert a course of morning

[b] Josh. xxiv. 15.

Prayers for a week, which might be used by either of them in private.

In the present edition, these prayers for private use have been re-arranged and enlarged, so as to serve for a fortnight. And these again have been followed by some collects for Church Seasons, and for Sundays; and by other prayers, for the use of both together or separately, suited to some of the various special occasions incident to the married state.

I have to return my best thanks to the few living Authors from whose works I have made selections; and particularly to the editors of "Euchologion," published by Messrs. W. Blackwood and Son, for their obliging permission to introduce in this edition some prayers and collects from that valuable work.

It only remains again to commend this feeble work and labour of love, for such it has truly been to the writer, to the blessing of the All-mighty and All-gracious

Disposer of hearts, humbly entreating Him that whatever comfort, advantage, and encouragement may have been experienced in the use of this manual in some instances, may be abundantly vouchsafed in many others.

ADVERTISEMENT.

TO avoid distraction of thought in the use of these prayers, it has been thought advisable not to indicate at full length after each collect the source from whence it was taken; but rather to adopt initials only, and to explain those signatures at the commencement of the book.

All those which are simply signed are taken without alteration from the works of their respective authors: but, as the editor has not scrupled to take great liberties with the materials afforded by such ancient and modern works as he had the opportunity of consulting, in adapting to his immediate purpose whatever he found suitable to the design in hand; he has prefixed in such instances the words From, or Partly from, to the initials, that the authors, while he desires to acknowledge his obligations to them, may not be held responsible for his alterations, though in some cases they may be inconsiderable.

This rule however has not been followed with respect to those signed in old English letters, which have been taken from the Ancient Liturgies. In the translation of these he found it convenient to use such freedom of alteration, omission, or general adaptation, that scarcely any one can be said to be a literal translation throughout. And this being understood, it was thought sufficient and preferable to attach to each such prayers one or more letters in old English type to shew the exact Liturgy from which each collect was obtained.

A few of these Ancient Liturgies appear in an English translation by several hands in the well-known collection by Dr. Brett, 1720; but most of these, and many others, had been collected in two vols. 4to. by Renaudot, Paris, 1716.

HER.

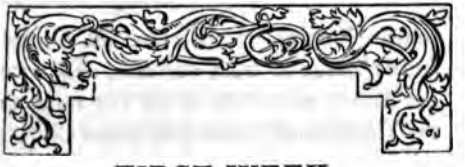
The Lord's Prayer.

Our Father, Which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us day by day[a] our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, The power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

Paraphrase from the Church Catechism.

O Lord God, our Heavenly Father, Who art the Giver of all goodness; we humbly beseech Thee to send Thy grace unto us and to all people, that we may worship Thee, serve Thee, and obey Thee, as we ought to do. And we pray unto Thee to send us all things that be needful both for our souls and bodies; and that Thou wouldst be merciful unto us, and forgive us our sins; and that it may please Thee to save and defend us in all dangers ghostly and bodily; and to keep us from all sin and wickedness, and from our ghostly enemy, and from everlasting death. And this we pray and trust Thou wilt do, of Thy great mercy and goodness, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

[a] This expression, which occurs in St. Luke xi. 3, is preferred for use in the evening.



FIRST WEEK.

Saturday Evening.

(Eve of the Lord's Day.)

For Pardon.

O LORD GOD, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and of great pity and truth, Who takest away our iniquities, transgressions and sins; every day of the past week have we offended Thee in thought, word, and deed: O pardon and forgive us according to Thy goodness and loving-kindness. For if Thou art extreme to mark what is done amiss, O Lord, who may abide it! But with Thee is plenteous redemption; for Thou art the propitiation for our sins, the Light and Saviour of our souls. Forgive us therefore all our offences, purge us from our sins, and write our names with those of all Thy saints in the kingdom of heaven, for Jesus Christ's sake our Lord. Amen.

OUR Father, &c.

Intercession, and Prayer for Preparation for the Sabbath.

O THOU, Who hast brought us in safety to the close of another week, Who art the Pastor of Thy flock and the Dispenser of Divine knowledge; prepare us and all Thy people for Thy approaching Sabbath. Make glad with the light of Thy countenance the wise messengers of good tidings, the interpreters of the Divine law, and the guardians of the flock which was purchased by the blood of Thine only-begotten Son; (especially Thy servant N.—, who ministereth in this parish): and preserve in holiness us who follow their steps and emulate their zeal. Pour on us and on all Thy people in this parish, a never-failing stream of pure doctrine, and make us worthy the vocation wherewith we are called: that in the last day, when sentence shall be pronounced, we may have our place assigned us at Thy right hand, to give Thee glory for ever; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For each other.

O THOU Who fashionest all hearts, bless us Thy servants now kneeling before Thee, in our union. Unite both of us to Thy blessed Self as well as to each other, that our union may be in the Lord; and that it may not separate us from Thee, but bring us nearer to Thee. And grant, O Lord our God, that we may be lovers of one another's souls, and promoters of each other's salvation; so that after a short season of fellowship here, we may meet again with rejoicing in Thy presence, and be blessed together in everlasting fellowship with Thee and with Thy dear Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From B. J.

For their Children.

O THOU Giver of all grace, grant us wisdom to instruct our dear children in Thy holy ways. Give us to use all parental and godly care and discipline over them. Enable us wisely, constantly, and in the spirit of love, as they are able to bear it, to set before them the truths of Thy word. And grant our children grace to attend to the instructions given to them. Help them to remember their Creator now in the days of their youth. Draw them to seek Thee while they are yet young, and so to obtain all the blessings of early finding Thee, through our only Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

From E. B.

Thanksgiving, and Prayer for Protection.

O KING of kings and God of all; who is able to shew forth Thy power, and tell of all Thy praise? who is able to search out the depths of Thy love towards mankind?—For Thou, O Lord, after we had transgressed Thy command, didst suffer God the Word, Thine only-begotten Son, and the brightness of Thy glory, to become the Purchaser and Disposer of our salvation! Who, according to Thy good pleasure and voluntary purpose, took upon Himself the ransom for our sins, and through His meritorious propitiation opened for us the way to heaven. Keep us, O Lord, in peace and safety through this night; refresh us in soul and body; and prepare us for the renewed contemplation of these stupendous mercies on the approaching holy Sabbath: that we may confess, and admire, and adore Thee, O God the Father, and Thine only-begotten Son, and Thy holy, life-giving, and sanctifying Spirit, three Persons and one God, for evermore. Amen. ℣.

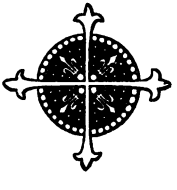
Benedictory Prayer.

THE blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be with us, and with all the Israel of God, this night and evermore. Amen.



Monday Evening.

For Protection and Blessing.

O LORD God, we bow our heads and hearts, and all the powers of our bodies and souls before Thee, praying and entreating Thy mercy this night; that Thy invisible hand may rest over us with blessings. Bless, sanctify and keep us, and all ours, through the victorious cross of Thy Son, from all harm of body or soul. Quicken us in Thy will, implant in us true faith in Thee, grant us stedfastness in keeping Thy holy commandments; and bring us to a good end, and to the enjoyment of Thy kingdom; to render glory and praise to Thee for ever; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

J. W.

For Pardon and Peace.

O ETERNAL Son of the Father, Who wast made man, and like unto us in all things, sin only excepted, Thou art our Mediator with the Father; Thou hast broken down the middle wall of partition, and hast abolished former enmities; Thou hast reconciled earthly things with heavenly, and hast made of two One by Thy dispensation in the flesh; with Thy body Thou hast ascended into heaven, and hast filled all things with Thy divinity. O Thou Who saidst to Thy disciples, My peace I give unto you; My peace I leave to you; grant us Thy peace, O Lord, and have mercy upon us. Cleanse us from all our sins, that we fall not short of Thy Divine and Heavenly gifts, through Thy grace, and the loving-kindness of Thy Father, and the operation of Thy Spirit; to Whom, three Persons in one God, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

OUR Father, &c.

For each other.

O God, Who hast called us Thy servants into this state of life, and hast joined us in wedlock together; we bless Thee that Thou hast dealt well with us, and provided graciously for us. O continue Thy goodness to us, and give us knowledge and grace to demean ourselves aright in this holy relation. Enable us on all occasions to consult the temporal and eternal welfare of each other, and grant that our earthly love may be the means of drawing us to Thee. May we bear with each other's imperfections, lighten each other's difficulties, soothe each other's sorrows, and set each other a good example, and may our intercourse together be such as becomes beings looking to and preparing for the immortal joys of the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

M. S.

For their Children.

O Lord, we beseech Thee to bless the dear children whom Thou hast entrusted to our care. Be Thou a gracious Father to them and a merciful Provider for them in all estates and events of their lives. Shouldst Thou see fit to take them hence before us, O prepare them for Thy presence, and make us willing to resign them to Thee. Or if Thou remove either of us from them, O Lord, take them up, and be Thou a Father to them when we are gone. O keep them from the evil of this world, and conduct them through it in safety to a better; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

From B. J.

Intercession.

O God, Thou lover of mankind, be mindful, we most earnestly beseech Thee, of the one Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, which is spread over the face of the whole earth. Be mindful, O Lord, of all Thy people, the Bishops and Pastors, and the flocks of Thy fold. Guide in righteousness the Queen and royal family, her council, the senate, the people, and this neighbourhood. Bless our dear parents and children, our friends and benefactors; bless our going out and our coming in. Direct all, O God, into the way of salvation, and gather them into Thy fold; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

M.

Thanksgiving.

O ETERNAL God, we offer Thee with a contrite heart and humble spirit the sacrifice of praise, our reasonable worship; for Thou art He Who hast given us the knowledge of Thy truth. But who is able to speak of Thy power, or to celebrate Thy praise, or to recount Thy wonderful works, Who hast empire over all things, and art Lord of Heaven and earth, and of every creature, visible and invisible! Who hast blessed us with many temporal blessings, and hast abundantly enlarged us with spiritual privileges! Who in Thine infinite compassion hast sent Thy beloved Son Jesus to be the propitiation for all our sins, and hast poured upon us Thy holy, life-giving Spirit, to lead us into all righteousness. O let Thy great mercies constrain us to shew forth Thy praise in all our thoughts and lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

B.; A. M.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Tuesday Evening.

For Pardon and Protection.

O LORD our God, Great, Eternal, Wonderful in glory, Who keepest Thy covenant and promises to them that love Thee with their whole hearts; Who hast given us salvation from our sins by Thy dear Son; Who art the Life of all, the Refuge of them that flee unto Thee, and the Hope of them that cry unto Thee; have mercy upon us Thy servants, pardon and cleanse us from our sins, whether open or secret, and from every thought which is not well-pleasing to Thy goodness. Drive all such imaginations far away from us; fill our souls with the love of Thee, O God; purify our bodies and our souls, our hearts and consciences; that we may retire to rest this night with pure hearts and grateful thoughts, in perfect charity, and with a happy hope of Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OUR Father, &c.

For each other.

O MOST gracious God, and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who of Thy bountiful mercy hast blessed us Thy unworthy servants with so many temporal and spiritual blessings in Christ; grant us grace to walk worthy of the vocation wherewith we are called, with all lowliness and meekness; that we may be filled with the knowledge of Thy will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, and that we may walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God. Grant this, we beseech Thee, for Jesus Christ's sake, our Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

For their Children.

O God, Thou art our God, and our fathers' God, we beseech Thee to be our children's God. Save them from sin and Satan, and this evil world. Save them from the vanity of childhood and youth: incline their hearts to holiness, and give them the wisdom which is from above. We ask not for them great things belonging to this world. So far as shall be for their spiritual and eternal good, favour them with health and safety, give them direction and blessing in every honest employment, and feed them with food convenient for them. But especially, make them jealous for their souls and wise for eternity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From P. P. B.

Intercession.

O LORD, the Father and Protector of Thy Church, bless all who are within its pale. Be Thou a powerful tongue in the mouth of Thy Pastors, against which the teachers of heresy shall not prevail. Be Thou the Rewarder of those who work good things, and the Deliverer of those who are held in affliction. Let the sighing of the mourners, and the cry of the poor, O Lord, and let the tears of the oppressed, and the sorrows of those who suffer persecution, come up before Thy Throne. Despise them not, and keep not silence, O Lord, that we may render thanks and honour to Thee, with all the company of Thy saints, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thanksgiving.

WE give thanks to Thee, O adorable Lord God, and glorify Thy lofty Name, and render to Thee our tribute of thanksgiving this evening, not according to Thy gifts towards us, but according to our powers. We confess that all things we possess are from Thee, and in Thee we live, and move, and have our being. By Thee is the abundance of our life supplied, and by Thee our souls and bodies were formed and created, and the whole fabric of our nature completed. Of Thee also are our will, our reason, and all the faculties of our minds. O let all be consecrated to Thee! Above all we owe to Thee the means of Redemption, through the death of Thy Blessed Son, and the outpouring of Thy Holy, comforting Spirit. O give us grace to lift up our hearts to the contemplation of Thy Divine perfections, and to acknowledge Thine infinite, unspeakable love toward us; that we may give thanks to Thee, O Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, now and evermore. Amen.

D.

Benedictory Prayer.

GRACE, mercy, and peace, from Gc the Father, and from the Lord Jes Christ our Saviour, and from the Ho Ghost, the Comforter, be unto us th night and evermore. Amen.

Wednesday Evening.

Invocation, and Prayer for Protection.

O Lord, Who hast given us the grace of adoption through the laver of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost; make us worthy that, without hypocrisy, and with pure hearts, and consciences full of trust, and lips free from all offence, we may offer our prayers to Thee this evening; and do Thou mercifully hear and answer our petitions, and defend us this night from all dangers ghostly and bodily, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

B.

For Pardon.

O SOVEREIGN Lord God, the Physician of our souls, our bodies, and our spirits, have pity on us Thy servants, who humble ourselves before Thy glory, that we may be healed of our diseases, and cleansed from all our iniquities, through the inspiration of Thy Holy, Good, and Gracious Spirit. Accept, O God, the atonement of our sins through Thy Son, Who taketh away the sins of the world: enlighten our understandings, and produce in us a sincere repentance; for Thou willest not the death of a sinner, but rather that he be converted and live. Deliver us, O God, from all manner of sin, and give us the knowledge, the will, and the courage to flee from our great adversary and all his works, and to do always that which is well-pleasing unto Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OUR Father, &c.

For each other.

O LORD our God, Who in Thy mercy hast brought us Thy servants together in marriage; grant that we may be of one mind and one heart in serving Thee. Grant that we may love, honour, and obey our Lord, Who has loved us and given Himself for us. Let our union with each other not hinder us, but help us, in our endeavours to be one with Christ. Let us watch that we never add to each other's temptations; but study to help each other forward in grace and godliness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From C. G.

For their Children.

O LORD Jesus, Who didst command little children to be brought unto Thee, declaring that of such is the kingdom of God; take ours, we beseech Thee, to Thy gracious favour. They are Thine; Thou gavest them to us. Put Thy words into our mouths, that we may teach them well; and open their hearts, that they may learn to love and fear Thee. Turn away Thy face from our sins, that Thou mayest not, on our account, withhold any good thing from them. And grant that loving Thee above all things, they and we may go on from strength to strength, till every one of us appear in Zion before God, through Thy merits, Who livest and reignest, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

From L. C.

Intercession.

O Lord God Almighty, hear the voice of our supplication: incline Thine ear, and hear our lamentations before Thy Majesty, and receive the intercessions of us sinners, imploring Thy grace. Have pity upon all Thy creatures; spare the guilty, convert the wandering, refresh the oppressed, give rest to the troubled; restore the sick, console the afflicted, and perfect the offerings of those who work righteousness, for the honour of Thy great name. Bless us, and all Thy whole Church, and number us with Thy saints in glory everlasting, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Ac.

Thanksgiving.

Holy art Thou, O Lord, Who when we were sitting in darkness and in the shadow of death, didst manifest in the flesh Thine only-begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ; Who taught us the way of salvation, and gave us a second birth through water and the Spirit, and made us a holy congregation, and cleanseth us by His Spirit: Who, when He had loved His own that were in the world, delivered Himself up to death for us all, and rose again, and ascended, and sent gifts unto men, and hath appointed a day of retribution, in which He will judge all men according to their works. O Lord, we adore Thy infinite holiness and Thine awful justice; and we praise and admire Thy tender love towards us, that Thou hast not dealt with us according to our iniquities, but hast spared us according to Thy mercy, and hast protected us hitherto in all dangers, and hast brought us in safety to the evening of this day. Accept our thanksgivings, most gracious God, and grant us Thy peace; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Peace and Blessing.

THE Peace and Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be with us and abide with us, this night and ever. Amen.

Thursday Evening.

Invocation.

O God, Who hast so loved us, and given us the right of adoption, that we should be called the sons of God and joint-heirs with Christ; incline Thine ear, O Lord, and hear us, who bow down our heads to Thee; and purify our inner man, even as Thy only-begotten Son is pure. Let the Lamb of God, Who taketh away the sins of the world, take away from us all evil thoughts, all guile and hypocrisy, all envy, dissension, and hatred, wrath and high-mindedness, and all other our sins; that being throughly sanctified in body, soul, and spirit, we may render glory to Thee in the highest, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

S.

For Pity and Pardon.

PITY us, O Lord, who are the work of Thy hands and monuments of Thy redeeming mercy. Send Thy Holy Spirit, Who is one with Thee and Thy Son, that He may rest upon us and dwell in our hearts. Hear us, O Lord; pity and quicken us; pour out upon us the gift of Thy grace and sanctify us: and withhold not Thy favour from us on account of our vileness and unworthiness. What things we have sinned, we confess; and what we have done amiss, we lament and acknowledge. But Thy mercies, O Lord, are many, and Thy compassions without measure. Let Thy Spirit descend upon us, cleanse all the stains of our souls, pardon all our faults, sanctify all our thoughts, and preserve us and ours this night in peace and safety; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ℭ.

OUR Father, &c.

For each other.

O God, Who by Thy mighty power hast made all things out of nothing; and didst form woman out of man, bone of his bones, and flesh of his flesh, that they might be one flesh together; give wisdom and grace to us Thy servants, and make us both so to order our conversation in the spirit of Thy holy fear, that we may ask nothing of each other but what Thy word allows, and deny nothing but what would hinder our duty or our love to Thee. In sickness or in health, in poverty or in abundance, grant that we may live in perfect peace together. May we gladly bear each other's burdens, and make allowance for each other's faults: so that, strengthening one another's hands for all good works, and helping each other's prayers without ceasing, we may come to Thine eternal kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From M.

For their Children.

MOST glorious and Eternal God, Father of men and angels, Father of mercies, and God of all comfort; Thou hast promised to be a Father to a thousand generations of them that love and fear Thee. Be Thou a God and Father to us, and the children whom Thou hast given us. Enable us, O Lord, to bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, and in the fear of God, to the praise of Thy Holy Name: and that they all may be Thine, O preserve them in Thy favour. If Thou pleasest, let them live to a full age, and serve Thee by a life of usefulness; but above all, secure to them a full measure of piety and holiness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From P. P. B.

Thanksgiving.

WE thank Thee, O Lord our God, for all the temporal and spiritual blessings which Thou hast given to us; for kind friends and affectionate relatives; for our substance, and for the health and sanctifying of our bodies and souls; above all for Christ Thy Son, Who by His power hath confounded Satan, binding the strong man, and trampling death under His feet. Grant, O Lord, that the ever-present sense of Thy mercies in Christ may work in us a lively faith, unfeigned charity, an abounding piety and abhorrence of sin, for which our Lord suffered; a ready obedience to Thy holy commandments, and a meetness for acceptance in the last day; through the merits and intercession of the same Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Blessing and Protection.

THE Lord bless us and keep us: the Lord make His face to shine upon us, and be gracious unto us. The Lord lift up His countenance upon us and give us peace, this night and evermore. Amen.

Friday Evening.

Invocation to the Son.

O Thou Who didst bow the Heavens and come down upon the earth for the salvation of mankind, Who hast unfolded all the abundance of Thy grace, Who orderest all things for us far more abundantly than we ask or think, Who art kind and good; extend over us Thy invisible hand this night, blessed and full of mercy and compassion, and bless Thy servants now kneeling before Thee; cleanse us from all defilement of the flesh and spirit, and make us recipients and partakers of Thy grace; that in holiness and righteousness we may offer our confessions and prayers this evening, through Thy continued intercession for us with Thy Father; to Whom with Thee and the Holy Ghost, belong glory and honour, now and ever. Amen.

G.

For Pardon and Cleansing.

O Lord, Thou art our Creator and God, the First and the Last, neither is there any other God besides Thee. Thou art the Comforter of the poor, the Hope of the afflicted; Thou seekest out the wanderers, and recoverest the lost. We therefore pray Thee that Thy mercy may find us in our lost estate, that we may be cleansed by Thy grace from the stains of our sins, and be delivered from the temptations that assail our souls and bodies. Spare us, O Lord, and blot out all our iniquities; deliver us from all the defilements of sin, and all the dangers of transgression; direct our steps in the way of Thy commandments, that through life we may be companions of them that fear Thee, and hereafter may rejoice with Thy Saints in glory everlasting, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OUR Father, &c.

For each other.

O GOD, Who hast taught us by Thy holy Evangelist St. Luke that Thy servants Zacharias and Elisabeth were both righteous in Thy sight; give grace unto us Thy servants, that, fearing Thee and loving Thy testimonies and Thy statutes with all our hearts, and provoking one another continually unto love and to good works, we may walk before Thee in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless; and so attain the end of our faith, even the salvation of our souls; through the intercession of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

For their Children.

Look graciously, O Lord, we beseech Thee, on our dear children, and grant them, if it may please Thee, health of mind and body, and the blessings of Thy grace, that they may comfort their parents, and glorify Thy Holy Name. But deal Thou with them, O Lord, as Thou seest to be best for them and for us; and grant, that, whether living or dying, they may be Thine; either preserved as Thy faithful servants here, or taken to the blessedness of Thy kingdom in Heaven: and enable us to look upon every dispensation as intended for our good, and to receive it with thankful acquiescence. Bless all our relations and friends, and give to them and to us Thy directing and sanctifying grace. Let the hand of Thy blessing be upon us night and day; to support us in all temptations, guide us in all doubts, and comfort us in all sorrows, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

M. S.

For Missions.

O Saviour of the world, Who by Thy cross and precious blood hast redeemed us, save us and help us, we humbly beseech Thee, O Lord. Lay bare Thine arm, revive Thy work, manifest forth Thy power and glory now, even as in the days of old. Amen.

We commend to Thy favour and protection, O merciful Lord, Thy servants who minister Thy word and sacraments in Thy holy Church throughout the world; and more especially in heathen lands. Increase their number, and give success to their endeavours to extend Thy kingdom. Watch, O Lord, over Thy Church, that there be no lost labour among the builders of it. And may Thy Holy Spirit add daily to the Church such as shall be saved. For Thine own mercy's sake. Amen. C. E. K.

Thanksgiving.

O Lord God Almighty, keep in our hearts continually the thankful remembrance of Thy many and unspeakable mercies to mankind; and receive our humble thanksgivings for all those whom Thou hast made partakers of the perfect atonement of Thy Blessed Son: for Thy whole Church; for all the Fathers and Prophets, Apostles, Martyrs, and Confessors; and for all the Saints who have gone from earth to Heaven through His prevailing intercession. We give Thee thanks for all the means and encouragements Thou hast given us to tread in their footsteps; for the precious word of Thy Gospel, for Thy holy Sabbaths and Sacraments, and for the warnings as well as blessings of Thy providence. O Lord, let Thy Holy Spirit descend and rest upon us, that by His powerful and controlling influence we may be made partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light, and evermore give thanks to Thee in Thy Heavenly kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

B. A.

Benedictory Prayer.

THE Lord direct our hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ; and the Lord of peace Himself give us peace always by all means. The Lord be with us all. Amen.

(2 Thess. iii. 5, 16.)

SECOND WEEK.

Saturday Evening.

Invocation.

O Lord Almighty, Who only art full of compassion, send down Thy blessing upon us who bow ourselves before Thy Throne: Thou Who dwellest on high, and yet regardest the lowly, bless us and accept us Thine unworthy creatures, through the grace, mercy, and love towards men of Christ, Thine only-begotten Son; through Whom and to Whom, with Thee and Thy Holy Spirit, be glory, honour and power, for evermore. Amen.

J.

For Pardon and Preparation for the Sabbath.

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who beholdest with sorrow the errors and wanderings of Thy people, have compassion on us Thy unworthy servants, who humbly and sorrowfully acknowledge the sins of the past week, and the manifold transgressions of our lives. Awaken us by Thy mercy; count us among Thy sheep; bind us with cords of love; direct our ways to Thy kingdom; perfect in us Thy gracious purposes. Prepare us, O Lord, by sweet and refreshing sleep, and by the graces of Thy Holy Spirit, for the approaching Sabbath, and in Thy good time appoint us a place in the assemblies of the just, for the sake, and through the merits, of Thy Son Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen. ℣.

Our Father, &c.

For each other.

O Gracious Father, Maker and Preserver of Heaven and Earth, Who in the beginning didst institute matrimony, thereby foretelling the mystical union of the Church with our Saviour Christ; and hast appointed it also for the mutual comfort and consolation of Thy children; we humbly entreat Thee to give us the assistance of Thy Divine grace, that we may live together according to Thy commandments. Mortify in us all unholy desires and all fleshly lusts; and make us to love, cherish, and comfort each other, whether in sickness or in health. Grant that we may live in peace, without debate; in unity, without discord; like the members of one body, equally desirous to praise Thy Holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From A.

For their Children.

GIVE us, O Lord, discreet hearts and understanding minds, to bring up our children in Thy faith and fear, in a religious and honest manner. Give them obedient hearts to Thee and Thy commandments, and grant that they may cheerfully perform all which Thou requirest of them in duty towards their parents; keep them from those who are ready to seduce them; and so lead them in Thy fear and knowledge, that they may prove, not a curse, but a blessing to us, and thereby attain to that blessing which Thou hast promised to those who honour and obey their parents; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From A.

For the Household.

GRANT, O Lord, that we may guide and instruct the family which is under us in Thy fear; and in an honest and useful manner provide as well for their bodies as their souls. And give them the like grace, to perform their duties in fear and obedience; not with eye-service, but in simplicity of heart, as in Thy sight. Continue to us, O Lord, a competency of estate, to maintain ourselves, our children and family according to that rank of calling, wherein Thou of Thy goodness hast placed us; without excess, riot, or vainglory, and in singleness and pureness of heart; humbly relying upon Thy blessed will, Who knowest better than we ourselves what is needful for us. Grant this, O Lord, for Jesus Christ's sake our blessed Saviour. Amen. From A.

And Parish.

HAVE mercy, good Lord, on all in this Parish. Let Thy Spirit be poured out amongst us; the Spirit of Light and Truth, to shed abroad in the hearts of the people holiness, wisdom, peace and love; the Spirit of grace and supplication, to teach them earnestly to pray unto Thee. Let Thy blessing rest on every head, that all may be brought unto Thee in faith and love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. From E. B.

Thanksgiving.

O LORD our God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, we render Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all things and in all things that Thou hast done unto us: that Thou hast protected, helped, nourished, and led us through the past time of our lives, and hast brought us to this hour; and permittest us to kneel before Thee at the close of another week, seeking the remission of our sins through Jesus Christ. Grant, O Lord, that we may pass Thy Holy Sabbath, and all the rest of our lives in peace and without sin; in all joy, health, and safety; and in all holiness and in Thy fear; through the grace, merits, and intercession of Thy Son, Who laid down His life for us sinners, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Benediction.

MAY the peace and blessing of the Holy, Uncreated, and Glorious Trinity rest upon us and dwell with us, now and evermore. Amen.

Sunday Evening.

Prayer for Sanctification.

O Lord Almighty, Whose Name is great, Who art the Author of all things, and guidest our thoughts to holy ends; Who, when we were strangers to the covenants of Thy promises, and aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, didst bring us to the knowledge of them; and hast led us, who were not worthy to knock at the door, into the inmost recesses of Thy sanctuary, which the very angels desire to look into; purify and sanctify our minds, and grant that, forsaking all worldly thoughts and cares of this life, we may ever seek Thy kingdom of Righteousness, and be delivered from every work and inroad of the wicked one; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

S.

For Pardon.

O LORD, we humbly and penitently confess our unworthiness and short-comings in Thy worship this day. Exact not of us, we beseech Thee, a strict account of our works and service; for there can be no justification of our perversities, seeing that we were regenerated in Thine image and likeness, and Thou hast called us to be brethren of Thy Son, and children of Thee our Heavenly Father: but let Thy mercy, O Lord, interpose between us and Thy judgments, and let Thy pity hide us under the shelter of Thy merciful wings. For none of woman born has ever been free from earthly errors and fleshly lusts, but only our Lord Jesus Christ Thy Son; according to Whose true promise we hope to obtain mercy, and the remission of our sins which is through Him: to Whom, with Thee and the Holy Spirit, be praise and glory for ever. Amen.

Our Father, &c., (or Paraphrase,) O Lord God, &c.

For each other.

O ETERNAL God, Who didst create woman as a help meet for man, and dost join them together in marriage; sanctify and bless Thy Holy ordinance to our happiness and comfort here below, and give us grace to seek and to find that wedding garment which, through the merits of our Redeemer, may admit us to Thy Heavenly Mansions. Implant in our souls the excellent gifts of faith and love, patience, gentleness, and forbearance; and so teach us by Thy Holy Spirit, that we may have a right judgment in all things, and ever faithfully do our duty to each other and to our dear children; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From H.; S. P. C. K.

For their Children.

MOST merciful God, pour Thy Spirit upon our seed, and Thy blessing upon our offspring; that they may be a seed to serve Thee, which shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation. Teach and enable us to bring them up in Thy fear, and to instruct and guide, reprove and exhort them in the meekness of wisdom, as those who travail in birth again to see Christ formed in their souls. Let none of ours come short of eternal life, or be found on Christ's left hand at the great day. Let it be the joy of our hearts to see them walking in the truth, and setting their faces heavenward: and do Thou guide and keep them in the right way, for Jesus Christ His sake. Amen.

P. P. B.

Intercession.

O LORD God Almighty, look down from Heaven upon us, and upon Thy Church and all Thy people; upon all in this Parish, and upon our dear parents and children, our relations, friends, and benefactors, our god-children and our schools; and preserve us and all the sheep of Thy flock. Bestow upon us Thy peace, Thy love, Thy succour; and send upon us the gift of Thy most Holy Spirit; that with a pure heart and a clear conscience, not following any other Gospel, we may be bound together in one spirit in the bond of peace and charity, one body and one spirit in one faith; even as we are called in one hope of our calling; that we may all be united unto a perfect love in Christ Jesus our Lord; with Whom and the Holy Ghost, Thou art blessed for evermore. Amen.

Thanksgiving and Prayer for Protection.

O Lord our God, we confess and adore the abundant riches of Thy grace, Who, when we were sinners and earthly, through the multitude of Thy mercies didst call us by Holy Baptism to a new life, and by the passion of Thy Christ boughtest us as sheep of Thy pasture, and by the grace of Thy Holy Spirit, Who is one with Thee in His glorious nature, hast vouchsafed to make us spiritual members in the great body of Thy Holy Church, and hast granted us to worship before Thy Throne this day: we praise and magnify Thy Holy Name. We seek help from Thee, to the strengthening of our souls; that in perfect charity and true faith we may walk before Thee with acceptance. Bless and defend us this night; perfect in us Thy grace, and pour out Thy gifts upon us; and of Thy tender compassion grant that we may please Thee all the days of our lives; and be counted worthy to render to Thee praise, honour, confession, and adoration, through Christ, for evermore. Amen.

Benediction.

God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghost, bless, preserve, and keep us, and all belonging to us, this night and evermore. Amen.

Monday Evening.

Invocation.

O God, the Author of life, to Whom boweth every knee that is in heaven and on earth and under the earth; we Thy weak and earthly creatures approach Thee, not for the cleanness of our hands, or for any good thing that we have wrought, but imploring Thee to give somewhat from Thy purity to us the lowest of Thy servants. Reject us not, nor our unworthy services, through any fault or stain of sin in us, for Thou knowest whereof we are made; but make us worthy, O Lord, that with pure hearts, and souls filled with Thy grace, we may make our confession before Thee, in the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Pardon and Protection.

O LORD, we confess before Thee, that we are guilty creatures, we have sinned before Thee, and are not worthy to lift up our eyes to Heaven. Have mercy upon us, Lord, we beseech Thee, for Thou knowest that we are but dust; and pardon our sins. So order Thy merciful dispensations toward us, that we may be made worthy of that good end which is prepared for them that love Thee: keep us in safety this night, and grant us refreshing rest; be gracious to us throughout this present life, and bring us hereafter to the habitations of light and joy; that there, as well as here, we may praise and extol Thy most holy and blessed Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

M. B.

Our Father, &c.

For each other.

O GOD, Who hast blessed our union with many great and happy privileges, and hast taught us in Thy Holy Scriptures that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of Thine, which may direct us in all our lives towards the attainment of everlasting salvation; grant us Thy continued blessing, that our conversation with each other, with our dear children, and with all around us, may be as becometh the Gospel of Christ; and that, being blessed together in Thy love, we may stand fast in one spirit, and with one mind strive together for the faith of the same Gospel; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For their Children.

O HEAVENLY Father, direct us, we beseech Thee, by Thy Good Spirit, that we may so instruct our children in the Holy Scriptures, that they may have an unfeigned faith in Christ Jesus. Bless all our endeavours for their good; and enable us to bring them up in Thy godly nurture and admonition. Sow the seed of eternal life in their hearts; and grant that they may grow in grace, and in the knowledge of their Lord and Saviour. Take away from them all malice, hatred, and whatsoever may be displeasing in Thy sight; and so fill them, Blessed Lord, with Thy Spirit, that they may dwell together in holiness and love, to the comfort of their parents, and to the praise of Thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From H.; S. P. C. K.

Thanksgiving.

HOLY art Thou, O Eternal King, the Lord and Giver of all holiness; Holy is Thine only-begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ, by Whom Thou hast made the world; Holy is Thy Holy Spirit, Who searcheth all things, even the deep mysteries of Thy Godhead. We praise and adore Thee for Thine infinite love to the work of Thine own hand, that Thou didst not despise and abandon man, when he had lost his happiness by transgression, but didst recall him by the Law, and instruct him by the Prophets, and last of all didst send Thy Son into the world for the renovation and revival of Thy lost image: Who suffered a voluntary and life-giving death upon the cross for us sinners. For these Thy mercies we worship and magnify Thy glorious Name; and for the coming of Thy most Holy Spirit, that by His holy, good, and gracious presence He might sanctify Thy Church. We thank Thee also for Thy daily loving-kindness showered upon us in abundant profusion, for the blessings of this life, and for the more precious blessings of Thy grace. Gather us, O Lord, to the number of Thine elect at what time and in what manner Thou pleasest; only let us be faultless and without reproach, through Him Who alone appeared without sin upon the earth, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

For Sanctification.

MAY the very God of peace sanctify us wholly: and our whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Tuesday Evening.

Prayer for Pardon.

O Lord, Thou hast said in Thy word of truth that there is great joy among the Angels in Heaven over one sinner that repenteth; make them therefore now to rejoice, O Lord, in the conversion of Thy servants who here kneel before Thee. Give us true repentance not to be repented of, and accept our humble and sincere confession of our sins. Thy compassion is extended every hour over all Thy creatures; do Thou therefore save us from the wrath reserved for the wicked, and from our malignant enemies who oppose our souls, and watch for their destruction: and make us worthy of Thy kingdom, and of the habitations of those who have obeyed Thy commandments and have entered into Thy joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

S. B.

For Protection.

TAKE us, O merciful Lord, under Thy gracious protection this night. Drive far away from us and this family, all envy, all fear, all temptation, every work of Satan, and every design of wicked men. Bestow upon us, O Lord, those things which are useful and suitable for us; and howsoever we have sinned in word, or deed, or thought, be not severe with us, nor forsake us, O God, who hope in Thee; neither suffer us to be tempted above what we are able to bear; but deliver us from the evil one, and from all his works; through the compassion and loving-kindness of Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

M.

Our Father, &c.

For each other.

O LORD, we beseech Thee mercifully to look upon us Thy servants whom Thou by matrimony hast made one: may it please Thee to preserve us in health and safety, and lead us in the knowledge and obedience of Thy word. Fill us both with all spiritual benediction and grace, that we may truly perform and keep the vow and covenant which we have made. Suffer not any trifling word or deed to cause angry or unkind feeling between us; but grant that we may ever help and encourage each other in Thy works and ways; and so walk together in peace and love one towards the other, and in prudence, godliness, and charity toward all, that we may come, with all Thine elect, to Thy Kingdom in Heaven; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

From H.; S. P. C. K.

For their Children.

O ALMIGHTY Father, we beseech Thee

to hear us in behalf of our dear children. Prevent them by Thy grace, that they may be preserved from sin and shame, from youthful follies and youthful crimes. Sanctify them throughout in their bodies, souls, and spirits; that their thoughts may be pure and holy; their words true and ingenuous, seasoned with grace; and their actions holy and useful, such as become the servants of Jesus: so that, pleasing Thee in their whole lives and doing good to others, they may increase in the love of God, and in favour with men; and may have the portion of the meek and humble in this world, and of the pure and merciful in the world to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From P. P. B.

Intercession.

REMEMBER, O Lord Jesus, our parents, kindred and friends; our benefactors, god-children, and servants; and all who desire of us that we should remember them in our prayers to Thee: let Thy peace be upon them. Help the infirm; heal the sick; strengthen the feeble-minded; comfort the afflicted and desolate; turn the hearts of those that devise mischief and abhor not evil: for Thou art the Life of us all, our Salvation, our Hope, our Physician and our Resurrection: and to Thee, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

Thanksgiving.

WHAT have we that we can render to Thee, O Lord, for all that Thou hast bestowed upon us! and for all Thy gifts, blessings, and benefits, vouchsafed to us creatures of the dust! O accept our thanks for protection and preservation, for pleasant and obedient children, and for sympathising friends; but above all for the salvation of Thy Son, and the sanctification of Thy Spirit. We confess, and adore, and glorify, and offer to Thee the voice of thanksgiving; and we beseech Thee, O Thou lover of mankind, that since Thou hast called us, and brought us into this state of salvation, Thou wilt keep us in the same; pardoning our offences and blotting out all our sins, and conducting us to eternal life, to the glory and honour of Thy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Peace.

Peace be unto us, and love with faith, from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ; to Whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Wednesday Evening.

Invocation.

O God, Thou hast bowed the heavens and come down: Thou wast incarnate for our salvation: Thou sittest upon the Cherubim; and beholdest the humble. We lift up our eyes and our hearts to Thee, O Lord, Who forgivest our iniquities, and redeemest our life from destruction: we adore Thy unspeakable mercy, and beseech Thee to grant us Thy peace. Thou hast given us all things; take us and all we have to Thee, O Lord. Convert us to Thy fear and to the desire of Thee; and grant that we may come to the fruition of Thy good gifts. Lift up with Thy right hand, O Lord, us who bow down our hearts before Thee; adorn us with the graces and fruits of Thy Holy Spirit; and make us worthy of Thy heavenly kingdom, through the merits and intercession of Thy Son, our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

ℭ.

For Pardon and Protection.

O Lord, through the abundance of Thy grace, we have a sure confidence that whatsoever we ask of Thee in faith, Thou wilt give it us. Be mindful, O Lord, of us sinners; deliver us from every evil work, and destroy us not in our iniquities; be not angry with us for ever, nor treasure up vengeance for us: but shew us Thy loving-kindness, and although we be unworthy, save us according to Thy mercies, that we may commit ourselves to rest this night with a sense of Thy pardon on our souls, and Thy peace in our hearts; and that we may glorify Thee always unto our lives' end; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Father, &c.

For each other.

MOST gracious and bountiful Lord God, Who, amongst other innumerable gifts to us Thy unworthy creatures, hast blessed us with an abundance (or, a competency) of worldly goods; make, we beseech Thee, Thy grace to abound towards us; that we, having all-sufficiency in all things, may abound unto every good work: and grant us ever to remember that we are but stewards of the good things we possess; that we may honour Thee with our substance, and be lovers of hospitality, and ready to distribute; considering the poor, and shewing mercy with cheerfulness: that so we may lay up in store for ourselves a good foundation against the time to come, that we may lay hold on eternal life; through Thine infinite mercies in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

For their Children.

O LORD, enable us, we beseech Thee, to train up our dear children in the way they should go, that when they are old they may not depart from it. Give us Thy grace and favour, that we may instruct them with diligence and meekness, govern them with prudence and vigilance, and lead them in the paths of religion and justice by examples and precepts of holiness; never provoking them to wrath, indulging them in their follies, nor conniving at any unworthy action. And give them grace also to obey their parents, that doing their duty they may receive the promise, and live for ever in Thy kingdom of glory, for Christ's sake, our Lord. Amen.

From P. P. B.

Intercession.

MERCIFUL Lord, Who givest us more than we ask or think, do unto us, and to all who desire our prayers, and to all Thy Church and people, according to the good pleasure of Thy goodness: give health to the weak, comfort to the indigent, liberty to the captives; be a Father to the orphans, and a God to the widows; sustain with good things those who are in difficulties; strengthen those that stand, raise up them that are fallen; receive the prayers of those who confess their faults, number the penitent with Thy saints, and the faithful with Thy martyrs; beat down Satan under our feet quickly, and make us all such as Thou wouldest have us to be in all holy conversation and godliness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

G.

Thanksgiving.

BLESSED art Thou, O Lord, and to be blessed in all things for evermore: Thou hast called us by Thy grace, and redeemed us by Thy Son, and hast given us the earnest of Thy Holy Spirit, and brought us to such a likeness to Thee as our earthly and fleshly natures are capable of. Thou therefore, O Lord our God, who art adored by all, keep us by Thy right hand from all danger of ruin to our souls, and bless Thy servants who bow before Thee, and send us the blessings of Thy heavenly gifts, that we may be one with Thee and Thy Son, and continually confess and adore Thy glorious Name, through the same Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

B.

For Joy, Peace, and Hope.

Now the God of hope fill us with all joy and peace in believing; that we may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost; giving thanks unto the Father, Who hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light.

Rom. xv. 13, and Col. i. 2.

Thursday Evening.

Invocation.

MERCIFUL and gracious Lord God, remove from our minds and thoughts all the stains which pollute our souls, and grant that we may kneel before Thee with pure hearts. Take away from us all the vileness of iniquity and sin, and confirm us in holiness and religious fear, that we may not come before Thee at this time with unprepared and careless hearts; but cleanse us from every wickedness and deliver us from all corruption which may make us aliens from Thee, that we may appear with a glad conscience before the throne of Thy Majesty, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

S. B. Ant.

For Pardon.

O LORD Jesu Christ, Who through Thy salutary life-giving passion didst bear the sin of many, and make intercession for the transgressors; we pray and beseech Thy goodness to make plain to us Thy servants the way of Thy mercy; and burst every band of our sins which we have committed before Thee, knowingly or ignorantly, through the malice or weakness of the heart, through shame and cowardice, by word or by deceit; for Thou knowest the infirmity of our nature. O Thou Redeemer of mankind, and Lord of all, grant us the remission of our sins; bless, sanctify, and cleanse us; deliver and absolve us. Perfect in us the fear of Thy Name, and direct us to do Thy will; for to Thee belong glory, honour, and power, now and evermore. Amen.

Intercession.

ALMIGHTY God, look down upon us hy unworthy creatures, and listen to our upplications and intercessions. Receive ur prayers for all who are in grief, diffiulty, or sickness; for all who are suffering necessity and vexation; for all the eak and oppressed; and for all who seek ur feeble prayers, and for ourselves who re weak and unworthy sinners. O Lord ur God, according to Thy compassion nd to the multitude of Thy mercies, beold us and all Thy people, and not according to our sins and follies; but make s worthy of the atonement of Thy dear Son, and the remission of our transgressions; through the same our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen. ℟.

Thanksgiving to the Son.

O Lord Jesu Christ, we Thy frail, weak and unworthy servants, confess with all the Heavenly Powers Thine abundant grace and favour towards us, which we cannot repay. For Thou hast put on our human nature, that Thou mightest bring life to us through Thy Divinity; Thou hast exalted our lowness; Thou hast rebuilt our ruin; Thou hast quickened our deadness and mortality; Thou hast borne away our sins, and justified the guilt of our transgressions; Thou hast enlightened our understandings, and condemned our enemy, and made the weakness of our frail nature to triumph. Pour down, gracious Lord, the abundance of Thy tenderness upon us; forgive our offences and sins; remember not our transgressions in judgment. And for all Thy help and favour towards us we render to Thee the song of thanksgiving, honour, confession, and adoration, now and ever, world without end. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Friday Evening.

Invocation.

O Lord, of great compassion, long-suffering and truth, hear our prayers and supplications, and receive the penitent confession of our sins, which we make before Thy bright and heavenly throne. Remember, Lord, the infirmities of Thy servants, regard us with mercy and pity, and heal us. Grant that we may worthily hear, and duly study Thy holy Word, and may so diligently observe Thy precepts and commandments, that we may bring forth fruit in our lives, thirty, sixty, or an hundred fold, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

B.

For Pardon and Protection.

O LORD God, Who art the Refuge of sinners, the Healer of the infirm, the Refresher of our souls, and Receiver of prayers; have respect unto the petitions of Thy unworthy servants, and forgive our offences: heal the wounds of our sins, and grant us the blessings of Thy grace. Be our defence this night, and guard and protect us against every assault of Thine and our enemy. Keep us without spot of sin, and let Thy peace be with us, and Thy invisible hand over us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ℭ.

OUR Father, &c.

For each other.

O GOD, our heavenly Father, Who didst institute the holy ordinance of matrimony in Thy wisdom and love for the happiness and benefit of Thy creatures; bless us Thy servants; and as Thou hast graciously called us unto the fellowship of Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, grant that we may be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment, concerning our own duties and all the blessed doctrines of Thy holy apostolic Church, the keeper and interpreter of Thy sacred Word; and that we may with one mind and one mouth glorify Thee, even the Father, in all our ways, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For their Children.

O Blessed Lord Jesus, Who for our children didst suffer a bitter death and Who holdest them to be very dear to Thee; we beseech Thee keep them in Thy Name, and nourish them with Thy favour. And grant that we, setting Thy glory always before us, may discharge the trust which Thou hast put upon us, of training them up in Thy faith, lovingly, prudently, holily, and firmly, to the honour of Thy Name, Who art one with the Father and the Holy Ghost for evermore. Amen. From L. C.

For Peace and Unity in the Church.

O God, Who through Thine abundant loving-kindness hast sown peace and tranquillity in Thy Church, and hast joined together diverse natures in one spiritual body, through the only-begotten Son, our corner-stone; grant us Thy peace; kindle our affections by Thy love; direct our thoughts to Thee; make Thy peace and quietness to reign in us; and grant that, bound together by one spiritual bond, we and all Thy whole Church may be one body with Christ our Head, even as Thou art One with Him: to Whom, with Thee and Thy most holy and adorable Spirit, belong glory, honour, and dominion for evermore. Amen. E.

Thanksgiving.

O Lord, the self-existing, eternal God, the Father Almighty, we Thine unworthy servants desire to offer to Thee, Father,

Son, and Holy Spirit, our continual praises: for Thou didst create and bring us out of nothing into being; and when we transgressed Thy command and fell, Thou didst again redeem and renew us; Thou didst raise us up, reclaim, and visit us with Thy salvation and Thy providential care, till Thou broughtest us by Holy Baptism into the ark of Thy Church, and in Thy mercy gavest us hearts capable of loving Thee, and an inheritance in Thy Kingdom to come. And moreover Thou hast kept, and protected, and blessed us, and hast brought us in safety from our youth up unto the evening of this day. Bless and keep us, we beseech Thee, this night; and for all Thy goodness to us we give thanks to Thee, O God the Father, and to Thine only-begotten Son and Holy Spirit; and we adore Thee for all the benefits which Thou hast vouchsafed unto us, those we know, and those we know not, both open and private, past, present, and to come, for everlasting. Amen.

THIRD WEEK.

Saturday Evening.

Invocation.

O God, our Father, Who of Thy great and ineffable love towards men hast sent Thy Son into the world that He might bring back the wanderers to Thy fold; turn not away Thy face from us while we draw near to Thee in prayer; for we trust not in our own righteousness, but in Thy mercy. Pity us, O Lord, and strengthen us by Thy Divine Grace; deliver us from the sinful workings of concupiscence, and illumine the eyes of our minds against the surrounding darkness of sin. We pray Thee, O Lord, that the work of Christ upon the cross, which was wrought for our salvation, may not be for our heavier condemnation, but for the pardon of our sins, for the remission of our follies, and for the return of thanks to Thy Name; through the grace and mercy of the same Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

OUR Father, &c.

For Preparation for the Sabbath, and Protection.

O LORD God Almighty, Who shewest mercy unto thousands of them that call upon Thee in truth, look down from Heaven with a pitying eye upon us Thy servants, who bow our heads and our hearts before Thee, expecting from Thee great and rich mercy, and to obtain pity and blessing from Thee. Prepare us, O Lord, for Thy approaching Sabbath. Bless us with all spiritual benediction, sanctify us by Thy Holy Spirit, appoint an angel of peace to keep and protect us this night, and to illumine and direct us on Thy holy day to every good work. Have compassion upon us, for Thy mercy is everlasting. Grant us refreshing rest, and dispose us, O Lord, to pass Thy holy day of rest, and every day of our lives, without sin, and in all joy, health, peace, safety, and blessing, and in all holiness, and in Thy fear; through the grace, mercy, and loving-kindness of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

For each other.

to each other, and to all around us. So aid and assist us by Thy good Spirit that we may strengthen and encourage each other unto all good works, looking not on our own things, but also unto the things of others; that the same mind may be in us which was also in Christ Jesus; that we may be a mutual solace and comfort in all perplexities, shewing out of a good conversation our works with meekness of wisdom: that we may comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, and be patient towards all men; for His sake, Who loved us and gave Himself for us, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For their Children.

O God our Father, and the Father of those little ones whom Thou hast entrusted to our charge, make us sensible how much we have to answer for in the guidance of their thoughts, and feelings, and affections. Let it be our first care in their behalf to bring them up in Thy faith and fear. Let it be our hearts' desire and prayer for them above all things, that they may be saved. Let us form no plan for their prosperity on earth without reference to their eternal welfare. And while we are grateful for the pleasure we enjoy in possessing them, let us not repine if it be Thy will to take them to Thyself; but rather thankfully acknowledge how much better it is for them to be with Thee where Thou art for ever: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

C. G.

Thanksgiving.

O OUR God, the God of salvation, teach us worthily to return our thanks to Thee for all the benefits which Thou hast at any time conferred, and dost still continue to confer, upon us. We adore Thee above all, O God, for the meritorious death and continual intercession of our Lord Jesus Christ, and for the gift and communication of Thy Holy Spirit. Cleanse us, we beseech Thee, from all filthiness of flesh and spirit, and teach us so to perfect holiness in Thy fear, that we may have the testimony of a good conscience, that Christ may dwell in our hearts by faith, that they may be temples of the Holy Ghost. Keep us unblameable in life, and bring us to a perfect redemption and adoption; that we, with all Thy saints who have pleased Thee from the beginning of the world, may be partakers of those good things which Thou hast prepared for them that love Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Stedfastness.

Now the God of all grace, Who hath called us unto His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, stablish, strengthen, settle us: to Him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Sunday Evening.

For Pardon and Deliverance from Sin.

O LORD, the God of spirits and of all flesh, Who hast vouchsafed to bestow Thy grace upon us, and to receive us among Thy worshippers this day; deliver all our senses from the deadly bondage of our passions, and establish in them Thine own mind and holy fear. Turn away our eyes from beholding iniquity, and our ears from listening to vanity or wickedness. Purify our lips that they may glorify Thee. Cause our hands to abstain from works of iniquity, and to open wide in works of mercy. Avert our steps from the paths of sin, and direct them in the course of the Gospel. Put Thy fear in all our members, and strengthen our minds, that Thy Spirit may dwell in us. Give us grace that we may hold fast the word of life; so that, saving us from the torment which has no end, and changing these our vile bodies into the likeness of Thy glory, Thou mayest bring us to a blessed and endless life; where we may render glory and praise to Thee, and to Thy Son Whom Thou hast sent for our salvation, and to Thy holy, adorable, and life-giving Spirit, for ever and ever. Amen.

OUR Father, &c.

To the Son, to be fruitful Hearers of His Gospel.

O LORD Jesu Christ, Who saidst to Thy Apostles, "Many prophets and just men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them, and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them; but blessed are your eyes, for ye see; and your ears, for they hear;" make us, we pray Thee, partakers of this blessedness, that we may be worthy to hear, and in works to perform, the holy precepts of Thy Gospel: for Thy Name's sake. Amen.

For each other.

O God, Who knowest the secrets of all hearts, and disposest them to what is holy and good; vouchsafe, we beseech Thee, to direct our thoughts and affections to the love of Thy commandments, that we may both increase in all the fruits of righteousness more and more. Let the word of Christ dwell in us richly in all wisdom, that we may teach and admonish each other in the spirit of meekness; yea, and smite each other friendly in faithful reproof; edifying each other, and forbearing one another in love: so that, in all the trials and vexations of life, our hearts may be comforted, being knit together in love, and resting with full assurance on Thy gracious and watchful protection; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For their Children.

BEHOLD, O Lord, the children whom Thou hast graciously vouchsafed to give us we humbly dedicate and devote to Thee. O that they may know Thee, and be owned by Thee as Thy children, every one of them, from the greatest to the least. Take Thou possession of their hearts, and enrich them now, even in their early years, with Thy heavenly grace. And teach those whose office it is to instruct them, how to guide them aright, that they may be brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Dispose of them and whatever concerns them in such a manner as may most tend to Thy glory and their salvation, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From B. J.

Intercession.

SUFFER us, O Lord, who are not worthy to ask anything for ourselves, to pray for the peace of Thy one holy Catholic and Apostolic Church; for a blessing on our Queen and on all the Royal Family, that they may be preserved in peace and righteousness; for all her Judges and Magistrates, that they may execute true judgment in Thy holy fear; for the health of Thy people, and the security of this nation; for the continuance of Thy favour, and the remission of our sins. Regard, O Lord, all who have worshipped with us this day in Thy sanctuary: accept their offerings, and return a gracious answer to their prayers. Give them incorruptible things for their corruptible, heavenly things for their earthly, eternal things for their temporal; bless their homes with peace and love, and their substance with increase; and let more and more be added to the number of Thy sincere worshippers and faithful penitents; through the intercession of Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

ℭ.

Thanksgiving.

O ADORABLE Lord God, it is right and just and agreeable to the majesty of Thy holiness, that we should praise, and celebrate, and give Thee thanks, and speak of Thy glory, Who art the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our great Redeemer, the Image of Thy goodness, the wisdom which was before all ages; the Life, and true Light: for He hath revealed to us the good and holy Spirit, the Spirit of truth and of adoption, the Earnest of our future heritage, and the First-fruits of eternal good things; the Fountain of sanctity, by Whom every true child of Thine is sanctified and enlightened; and through Whom Thou hast moreover bestowed upon us innumerable blessings. Invocation.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who madest man without imperfection, and by the advent of Thine only-begotten Son, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, hast destroyed death, which the malice of Satan brought into the world; and hast replenished the earth with heavenly peace; fill our hearts, O Lord, according to Thy good pleasure, with Thy peace; and cleanse us from every spot of sin, from all hypocrisy and deceit, from all evils, and from the harrowing remembrance of injuries. Make us worthy of the great salvation Thou hast wrought out for us, that Thou mayest not reject us and our unworthy supplications; for Christ's sake our Lord. Amen.

B.

For Pardon.

O God, Who takest away the sins of the world, prevent us by Thy grace, and accept from Thine unworthy servants the penitent confession of our sins, and grant us free remission; for Thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, long-suffering, and of great kindness. Whatever we have offended, in thought, word, or deed, spare and forgive us. O Lord, absolve us, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

Our Father, &c.

For each other.

Most gracious God, Who hast joined us Thy servants together in the bands of holy wedlock, grant us Thy grace, that we may be worthy of the honourable estate into which of Thy great mercy Thou hast called us. Make us to increase and abound in love one towards the other, that we may willingly and cheerfully bear each other's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. And should either of us, through the weakness or the wilfulness of the flesh, be betrayed into a spirit of unkindness towards the other, let us be ready to forbear, and quick to forgive, even as Thou, Lord, hast forgiven us, for Christ's sake; to Whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

For their Children.

O God, the Author of life, pour down, we beseech Thee, Thy Spirit upon our seed, and Thy blessing upon our offspring. Regard them as Thy children by adoption and spiritual regeneration. We have helped to bring them into the world, children of wrath; O that Thou wouldest make us instrumental to bring them up in Thy Church, children of grace. Lord, have mercy upon them, and speak life to their souls; and whatever else they want, let them not want Thy grace, and the portion of Thy children, for Jesus Christ's sake, our Lord. Amen.

From B. J.

Intercession.

RECEIVE, O Lord, we beseech Thee, our prayers for Thy Church and people. Send down from heaven into our hearts that peace which the world cannot give. Release those who are in bonds; relieve those that are in need; feed the hungry, comfort the feeble-minded, bring back those who are gone astray, give light to them that are in darkness, raise up them that are fallen; fix the unstable, heal the sick. Deliver us all, O God, from our iniquities, and be in all things our Protection and Defence, this night and ever, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thanksgiving.

O LORD Jesus, our Saviour, how shall we recount in words and acknowledge with due thanks the whole of that costly dispensation which Thou hast wrought out for us? or trace out Thy voluntary emptying Thyself of the glory which Thou hadst with Thy Father before all worlds, and taking upon Thee our infirmity? How can we explore the mystery of Thy Nativity, by which Thou hast delivered man from the bondage of Satan, and snatched us from his cruel power? or Thy Baptism in Jordan, whereby Thou didst unfold Thy Father's purpose of adopting us as sons and fellow-heirs with Thee, and reveal to us the mystery of the Holy Trinity? How can we repay Thy unmerited Passion, and Thy voluntary Death, by which Thou hast repressed our passions inclining to sin, and hast slain death, the wages of sin? We admire and extol Thy glorious ascension to the right hand of Thy Father, and Thy exalted session there, far above all the Divine Intelligences, whereby Thou hast opened a way for us to that heavenly region: and whereas Thou hast said, Where I am, there shall also My servants be, so do Thou perform this unto us Thy servants. A sentence from B. J.

For their Children.

MOST gracious and merciful Lord God, be Thou a Guide and Guardian to us and to the dear children whom Thou hast entrusted to our care. If it should please Thee to remove any of them from us by death, make us humbly submissive and resigned, and firmly persuaded that all is well. If, while they are young, Thou shouldest remove us from them, be Thou infinitely better to them than we were capable of being; for in Thee the fatherless findeth mercy. And when we are gone to praise Thee in Heaven, let our dear children be praising Thee on earth, and be living not to themselves, but to Him Who died for them and rose again, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

From P. P. B.

Intercession.

O God, our Creator and Saviour, Who forgivest sins, Who redeemest our lives from destruction, and crownest us with loving-kindness and tender mercies; have mercy upon Thy whole Church, and strengthen the foundations thereof; sow in us the love of peace and concord; let the purity of our faith be increased; prepare for us the right way of piety. Bless our Queen, and rule her heart in Thy fear; bless all the Royal Family; direct and strengthen the bishops and pastors of Thy flock, especially Thy servants whom Thou hast set over us in this diocese and parish, and guide and confirm their congregations in the faith. Give a spirit of kindness to the rich, and of modesty to the great; give succour and contentment to the poor; make strong the old, instruct and enlighten the young; comfort the mourners, compassionate the penitent; bless all our relations, friends, and benefactors; forgive, and take from us and all our enemies all hatred and malice; and gladden the hearts of all Thy people, for Jesus Christ's sake, our Lord. Thanksgiving.

We give thanks to Thee, O Lord, the Author and Giver of all good things, for that Thou hast protected us, helped and preserved us, enriched us with blessings, received us into Thy presence, and hast pitied us, and brought us even to this hour. But before all, for Thy unspeakable mercies vouchsafed to us in our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, through Thy Holy Spirit. We bless Thee, O Lord, and pray Thee to keep us this night with

Wednesday Evening.

For Pardon and Grace.

O Lord, Whose only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, was the one and only Person Who was ever united to a body of flesh and entirely subdued all the sinful lusts thereof, so as to leave no room for them to take hold of Him; impute not unto us our sins, nor enter into judgment with Thy servants, for in Thy sight can no flesh be justified. So direct, O Lord, and prepare us in this life, by Thy holy word, and the ministry of Thy Church, by Thy sabbaths and all holy ordinances, for the meeting of Thy Son, that when He shall come with His holy Angels in the glory of Thee His Father, to gather together His Saints, we may not, through the fondness we have to our passions, or the burden of our sins which we have committed, be let or hindered when His elect shall be taken up to meet Him in the air. Grant that with them we also may sing triumphal hymns, and say with glory and praise, Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord! that in this, as in all other things, Thy Name may be praised and glorified, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Father, &c.

For each other.

O gracious Lord, Who hast united us Thy servants together that we may sympathize with each other in all crosses, and seek the good of one another; raise up in us such a holy jealousy of those infirmities which we behold in each other, that we may not fail, in the spirit of wisdom and gentleness, to rebuke, reprove, and warn each other concerning sin and duty. Give us grace also to receive such admonitions with patience and gratitude, and to humble ourselves before Thee in faithful repentance and sincere contrition of heart. And grant that thus helping each other forward in all goodness, and speaking the truth in love, we may both increase in love towards each other and towards all men, and grow up unto Him in all things which is the Head, even Christ, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

For their Children.

Most merciful Lord and heavenly Father, Who hast taught us in Thy holy word how Thou regardest the piety of parents; direct us ever, we beseech Thee, by Thy Good Spirit; and grant that like faithful Abraham, we may both instruct and command our children and household to keep the way of the Lord. Bless all our endeavours for their good, that they may have an unfeigned faith in Christ Jesus. Preserve them evermore by Thy good providence, and so direct their way, that they may pass the waves of this troublesome world in peace and safety, and finally by Thy mercy attain the land of everlasting life, through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Intercession.

O LORD, Thou God of peace, remember, we pray Thee, Thy one Holy Catholic Church, which is spread even unto the ends of the earth. Bless all people and lands; send Thy heavenly peace into our hearts, and give us also the peace of this life. Bless our Queen and the Royal Family; her council, magistrates, and people; our neighbours, and all this parish; let our going out and coming in be in all peace and quietness. O Thou Who givest all things, take possession of our hearts; for we know no other God but Thee, and we call upon Thy Holy Name. Hear our prayers for ourselves and others, and hear their prayers for themselves and us. May our souls live through Thy Holy Spirit, nor let death have the dominion over us, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

Thanksgiving.

We give thanks to Thee, O Lord our God, for all Thy benefits bestowed upon us: for our preservation this day from evil and harm, for all the events of Thy providence by which Thou hast delivered us from sin, and preparest us for Thy heavenly kingdom; that Thou hast brought us out of the serpent's power, and makest us to dwell in Thy Church; that Thou hast called us to be Thy sons, and hast handed down to us the dispensation of Thy Gospel; that when we were aliens and far off from Thee, Thou broughtest us near by the blood of Thy Only-begotten Son, and hast promised us a kingdom that perisheth not, good things which pass not away, and joys that have no end. Therefore we render to Thee our unfeigned praises and hearty thanksgivings, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Thursday Evening.

To the Son, for Pardon and Protection.

O Lord Jesus, we have rebelled against Thee, we have done wickedly. Let not Thy justice look upon our iniquities, so that Thou shouldest drive us away with them that hate Thee. Let not Thy grace be wearied out by the hatefulness of our offences; nor reject us with Thine enemies, lest they rejoice over our destruction, and say to us, Where is your God? But pour out upon us Thy grace, and hide us under the wings of Thy compassion. Be our safeguard this night; stretch out Thy right hand over us; place us under Thy shadow. We have sinned, O Lord, we have done foolishly and wickedly; we have neglected the words of Thy Prophets, we have shut our ears to the doctrine of Thy Apostles, we have not obeyed Thy life-giving precepts. Have compassion upon us, gracious Lord, and pardon our offences; multiply upon us Thy grace, that in all our ways confessing Thee before men, Thou mayest acknowledge us before Thy Angels; and of Thy pity present us blameless before the presence of Thy Father with exceeding joy, for Thy Name's sake. Amen.

May it tend to our happiness here and hereafter; may we love each other with a pure heart fervently, and study by our life and conversation to encourage each other in the path of duty. May we use with temperance and moderation the many innocent enjoyments Thou hast placed within our reach: may we be grateful for them; but

For the Indwelling of the Holy Ghost.

We beseech Thee, Most Holy God, send to us from the region of Thy blessed presence, Thy Holy Spirit, Who is ever given to those who are accepted by Thee, and perfects and consummates all who know Thee; that, lighting and resting upon us, He may dwell in our hearts, and by the virtue of His grace may sanctify us to the honour of Thy Name. That by the communication of His blessed influence we may have access to Thee here by faith, and may receive eternal blessedness in the heavenly region where the tabernacles of light are fixed, adorned for the marriage of the Lamb; and in communion with those victorious Saints who there keep festival we may enjoy the perpetual feast of Thy presence, and with them celebrate Thee, and sing glory and praise to Thee and the Lamb, Who liveth and was dead, and is alive for evermore. Amen.

Thanksgiving.

WHAT glory, or what praise, or what return of thanksgiving can we render to Thee, O God, Thou lover of mankind, for that Thou hast given liberty to us who were guilty of death, and long immersed in sins; and hast revealed to us, and made us partakers of that mystery of redemption which was hidden from ages and generations, that it might be made known among the Princedoms and Powers of Heaven, through Thy Church. Thy wisdom is above all that is thought wise; Thy dispensations toward us above all comprehension. Thou hast enlarged us also with many temporal blessings; Thou hast given us health and prosperity, obedient children, dear relations, and kind friends and benefactors. For this Thy so great tenderness of love, Thy Fatherly solicitude, Thy ever-flowing grace, we do truly render glory to Thee, and to Thine only-begotten Son, and to Thy Holy Spirit, now and ever. us Thy unworthy servants. Grant that we may be one in all things good and holy; that we may be one with Christ, and Christ with us. Let Thy grace suppress all risings of frowardness and impatience in our frail tempers, and whatever else might disturb and embitter the sweet concord of our wedded life. Let the daily contemplation of Thy holy word and will, and the experience of Thine infinite loving-kindness, unite our hearts more perfectly in the love of Thee; that the longer we abide together in this life, the more fervently we may aspire after the joys of an eternal union with Thee and with Thy Son, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Intercession and Thanksgiving.

O Lord God, Almighty Father, we offer up our prayers for Thy Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, which is spread over the face of the whole earth; that Thou wilt preserve it in peace, free from scandal, without blemish, spot, wrinkle, or any such thing; for Thou hast promised by Thine Only-begotten Son Jesus Christ our Lord, that the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. For our Gracious Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal family, that they may be endued with the riches of Thy wisdom and grace. For all Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, especially our own Pastor, that they may rightly preach the word of truth, and keep the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. For all conditions of Thy people wheresoever they be; for all who have knowingly or ignorantly sinned against Thee; and for all who are praiseworthy and adorn Thy Church by works of righteousness. We beseech Thee also, Merciful Lord, to comfort and relieve all who are grieved with pain or sickness; and to bless us, and all our friends, relatives, and benefactors, (especially——;) that we and all Thy whole Church, being at unity among ourselves, may render unto Thee, for all Thy mercies, and especially for the inestimable gift of redemption by Christ, all praise, honour, thanksgiving and adoration, now, henceforth, and for ever. Amen. ℟

Benedictory Prayer.

Now the God of Peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make us perfect in every good work to do His will, working in us that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to Whom be glory for ever and ever. Prayer for Sanctification and Protection.

O God, the Creator of all things, Who rulest all things by Thy providence, for Thine are all things; receive this our evening sacrifice of prayer and thanksgiving, and grant us Thy Holy Spirit, that immaterial fire which thought cannot comprehend, that it may consume our hardness of heart, and burn up all evil imaginings, destroying the earthliness of our members, and refraining all motions of the mind which impel us to conceptions bringing after them sorrow and repentance: and make us, as becometh Christians, superior to the things of the earth,

Thou Who openest the eyes of the blind, open the eyes of our souls, that we may repel from us all the darkness of malice and wickedness whereby we may be defiled; that we may be able to lift up our eyes to the awful splendour of Thy glory. Fulfil, Lord, upon us, Thy gracious promise, I will heal their backslidings, I will love them freely; let our iniquity be taken away, and our sin purged; and grant that with purity of mind and spirit we may approach Thee, lifting up holy hands, and presenting before Thee the acceptable sacrifice of a broken spirit and a contrite heart, which Thou wilt not despise. Vouchsafe to sanctify our souls, our bodies, our lips, and our hearts; and give unto us that true and living bread, which came down from Heaven, and giveth life to our souls, bodies, and spirits, even the holy

Body and precious Blood of Thy Christ; not to our condemnation, or that we may fall into judgment; neither to our confusion, nor to weeping over our offences in that we may have communicated unworthily, and so have become guilty before Thee; nor let the multitude of Thy blessings, O Lord, be the cause to us of greater and heavier judgment, if we should be ungrateful towards Thee, Thou Author of all good. But bestow largely upon us Thy Holy Spirit, that with pure hearts, and clear consciences, without confusion of face, in faith unfeigned, in perfect charity, and in stedfast hope, we may venture to come before Thee with confidence in the merits and intercession of Thy beloved Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Invocation.

O LORD, the riches of Thy gifts surpass all our faculties of speech, and all our powers of mind, for Thou hast hidden from the wise and prudent, and revealed unto babes those things which prophets and kings desired to see and have not seen. Grant unto us, O Lord, that we may perform Thy holy precepts; implant in us a desire of Thine eternal good things; keep us in peace and safety this night, and defend us by Thy holy Angels. Bless the works of our hands; direct our paths, and rule our lives; order what things are good and convenient for us, and that we may well employ the talents committed to us: and grant unto us that we may be rendered worthy of Thy grace, and send up to Thee the praises due to Thy Divine Majesty, and that we may always have confidence before Thee, through the intercession of Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For each other.

O ETERNAL God, Who madest man out of the dust of the ground, and out of his side didst form woman, and join her unto him to be a help meet for him, because it was the pleasure of Thy Majesty that man should not be alone upon the earth; send down Thy blessing upon us Thy servants, and guide us in every good work. As Thou hast permitted us again to partake together of the broken Body and the poured out Blood of our most Blessed Lord, so grant that we may both feed on Him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving, and be together preserved in body and soul unto everlasting life. Grant unto us perfect love, peace, and mutual help, that we may be preserved in concord and steadfast fidelity to each other, and be blessed in innocency of life, and in the holy fear of Thy Name. Bless us in our family, and give us cause to rejoice in the sight of our sons and our daughters; and add unto us and them all things necessary to salvation. Even so, good Lord, be merciful to us, protect, and save us by Thy grace, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

From G. C.

For their Children.

O THOU Who hearest prayer, and grantest the petitions of them that fear Thee, and savest them; Who didst hear righteous Job when he rose up early in the morning and offered sacrifice for his children, Lest (he said) my sons have thought evil in their hearts before God, and have sinned,—hear us also, we beseech Thee, while we pray for our children. Make them free from all conscience of evil things, from every unfruitful and unprofitable action, and from every vile imagination of things profane and contrary to purity. Grant them, O Lord, the knowledge of their sins, that they may humbly confess and repent of them. Give them sincere repentance and conversion to Thee. Spare them, O Lord; for Thine are all things, and from Thee are the rewards of our deliverance, which is no work of our hands. We therefore glorify Thy power, O our King, and beseech Thee to fulfil us and all ours with Thy heavenly benediction, and direct us into Thy holy will and fear, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

A. T.

Thanksgiving.

We thank Thee, O Lord, the gracious Benefactor of our souls, that Thou hast permitted us on this sacred day to worship Thee in the beauty of holiness in Thy Sanctuary. Our mouth is filled with joy, and our tongue with gladness, that we have been counted worthy to partake of Thy holy mysteries. Those things which eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, nor hath it entered into the heart of man to conceive, Thou, O God, hast prepared for them that love Thy Name, and hast revealed them to the little ones of Thy Holy Church. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Thy sight! Continue to us Thy grace. Perfect us unto our last breath of life in the faith of the Holy Trinity; for every good gift and every perfect gift cometh down from above, and descendeth from Thee, the Father of Lights. And to Thee we offer glory, giving of thanks, and adoration; to Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever. Amen.

For Pardon.

O MERCIFUL God, we humbly beseech Thee, take away, pardon, and blot out our sins, which through the frailty of our nature we have committed from our youth up until now, whether secretly or openly, especially those for which in the world to come condemnation is prepared. O Lord, forgive our many offences, replenish our hearts with Thy peace, and grant to us, that when the just shall be gathered as wheat in Thy granaries, and the wicked shall be burnt up as chaff, we may be counted worthy to praise Thee in the assemblies of Thy saints, and rejoice with the redeemed to sing, Blessed is He that came for our salvation, and that now cometh for our renewal in the second regeneration; that in this as in all things Thy Blessed Name may be glorified and praised by all, with our Lord Jesus Christ, and Thy Holy Spirit, for evermore.

For Grace.

O FATHER of mercies, and God of all consolation, grant unto us that we may diligently observe all Thy precepts; and make us to approach Thee (in Thy sanctuary this day), and to offer up our humble prayers (with Thy people) before Thy Majesty. Turn to us, O Lord, and send us the blessings which flow from Thee. Let Thy right hand overshadow us, invisible, and full of blessings; surround us with a wall of defence against all the snares of Thine and our adversary, and of all the enemies of our souls; deliver us from those temptations, and exempt us from all those evils, secret and manifest, which on account of our sinfulness are ever ready to assail us; and keep us evermore, I pray Thee, in Thy love, and faith, and fear, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

B.; A. M.

For Wife or Husband.

SEND down, I beseech Thee, O God, Thy heavenly blessing upon me and Thine handmaid (or servant), who have been made one through the ministry of Thy holy Church. Give us a becoming frame of spirit toward each other. Enable us to live together in holy love as helps to each other in all the duties, trials, and temptations of this world, and as heirs together of the grace of life. Go with us, O Lord, whithersoever we may go; dwell with us wheresoever we dwell. May our house be ever sanctified by Thy word and by prayer. Prosper us in all things, and in all the relations of life, with Thy blessing, which truly enricheth and addeth no sorrow. Prepare us by Thy grace for all that Thy providence is preparing for us. And after all the changes of this transitory life, receive us to Thy heavenly kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord, to Whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen. Euch.

And Children.

ALMIGHTY God, merciful Father, I beseech Thee to hear in heaven Thy dwelling place the prayers I humbly offer on behalf of our children. May it please Thee to give unto each of them a new name written in the Lamb's book of life, and a place in Thy heavenly temple, whence they shall go no more out. Take them into Thy fatherly care and keeping, and regard them with the favour which Thou barest unto Thine own people. Grant to them, if it be Thy loving will, health of body and soundness of mind; save them from all evil and mischief in soul and body; may they, like Thy holy Child Jesus, grow in wisdom as they grow in stature, and in favour with God and man; may they be kept by Thy mighty power—Who willest not that one of these little ones should perish—through faith unto salvation; and after all the trials and changes, the joys and sorrows of this life are over, may they inherit Thy promises, and enter into Thy blessed rest, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Euch.

If in Holy Orders, before going to Church.

REMEMBER, Lord, my frailness, and the poverty of my soul, and vouchsafe that I may feel how great a dignity it is to minister in Thy Sanctuary. Take away from me all vain and selfish desires, nor let me have this day's ministry to account for in that terrible day. Deliver me from all the works of my powerful adversary, neither destroy me on account of mine iniquities, nor be angry with Thy servant for ever. Keep not my sins in remembrance, but shew Thy goodness towards me, and deliver me, though unworthy, according to the multitude of Thy mercies toward me, that I may bless Thee all the days of my life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear, Lord, the supplications of Thy people; have respect unto the sighs of Thy servants, and deprive not Thy flock, through my sins, or the unworthiness of my heart, of the presence of Thy Holy Spirit, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

C.

Before Communion.

O LORD Most High, I bow my head and my heart before Thee, humbly entreating the forgiveness of all my perversities, which by wilfulness or negligence I have committed. Do Thou of Thy continual pity blot out and do away all my iniquities, and spare me through Thy loving compassion. Grant likewise unto me, that with careful preparation of soul, with thoughts weaned from the world, and with a clean heart, I may partake of Thy holy things this day; that they may be a pledge to me of forgiveness and acceptance, and of holy joys abiding for eternity, through the grace and compassion of Thy dear Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

C. R.

Thanksgiving.

WHO is sufficient, O Lord, to recount the abundance of Thy mercy, or to tell of the greatness of Thy love towards men! Who, when we were held captive by the sinfulness of our nature, and were bound with the chain of our iniquities, didst count us worthy of the washing of regeneration in Holy Baptism, and to be called Thy sons! O grant to us, that, cleansed from all filth of sin by the renewing of the Holy Spirit, and keeping ourselves pure in body and soul, we may be made worthy of that blessedness which is promised of Thee to those who do Thy will, and of the enlightenment and comfort of Thy Holy Spirit, and of the exercise towards us of the atoning Priesthood of Thy Beloved Son: to Whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, belong glory and dominion for evermore. Amen.

For Reliance on God, and Peace therewith.

O Lord, let our minds be stayed on Thee, that Thou mayest keep us in perfect peace all the days of our lives, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

After Communion.

Now, O Lord, that Thou hast received us to Thy Holy Table, and hast invited us to Thy kingdom by vouchsafing to us the reception of Thy Holy and Life-giving mysteries, by which Thou hast made us welcome to partake, in communion with Thy people, of the Holy Body and precious Blood of Thy dear Son, and hast called us to be heirs with Thy Saints; I beseech and implore of Thy mercy, that Thou mayest not be extreme to require of us that strict and exact observance which is beyond our infirmity to give, and that Thou mayest not condemn us, with those that have not known Thee, to the torments of unquenchable fire; but through Thy grace grant unto us rest and peace with Thy faithful sons, and make us to lie down with Thy lambs in Paradise, that with them and among them we may offer to Thee glory and perpetual thanksgiving, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

* That this office for private devotion may not be entirely wanting in some prayers appropriate for the Holy Communion, two short collects are inserted with each of the series for the Sunday mornings: but the larger preparations are earnestly recommended, of Bishop Wilson and others, or the Eucharistica of Bishop Wilberforce. Some prayers on the subject will be found also towards the end of this book.

 A convenient place is marked out in the course of these prayers for reading Psalms and other portions of Holy Scripture, if, as it is desirable, that exercise be joined with the private devotions. Nevertheless, if another time be more suitable, every one may use his liberty herein, as good Bishop Taylor somewhere says, so it be not neglected.

Tuesday Morning.

Invocation.

O Eternal God, without beginning and without end, great in counsel, and mighty in works, Who art every where, and in all things; be with me, Lord, at this time; be with Thine unworthy servant; purify my heart, and sanctify my soul; pardon and cleanse me from all the sins I have committed, voluntarily, or involuntarily. Instruct me how to open my mouth before Thee, that with a contrite and humble spirit I may offer to Thee a reasonable sacrifice this morning, the sacrifice of blessing, and spiritual incense. And may we all receive blessings from Thee, O Lord, that we may go forth in peace this day, and have strength and grace to do Thy will all the days of our lives, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

B.

For Pardon.

O God our Father, merciful and kind, long-suffering and of great goodness, Whom the Angels and Archangels and all the host of Heaven worship and adore; look down upon us with compassion, and sanctify us throughout, that we may be to Thee, as new-born sons, spiritual, pure, and holy. Direct our steps in Thy holy ways; preserve us from all temptations of body and soul; and cast down Satan under our feet. Pardon all our sins, backslidings, and forgetfulness of Thee; and grant us the rich mercy which is of Thee in Christ Jesus our Lord, with Whom and Thy Holy Spirit, Thou art blessed and praised by all Thy creatures now and for ever. For Wife or Husband.

O GOD of Abraham, God of Isaac, God of Jacob, bless me Thy servant and my wife, and sow the seed of eternal life in our hearts; that whatsoever in Thy holy word we shall profitably learn, we may indeed fulfil the same. Look, O Lord, mercifully upon us from heaven, and bless us. And as thou didst send Thy blessing upon Abraham and Sarah, to their great comfort, so vouchsafe to send Thy blessing upon us Thy servants; that we, obeying Thy will, and alway being in safety under Thy protection, may abide in Thy love unto our lives' end; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Intercession.

O LORD, Who wilt be sought of them that asked not for Thee, and art found of them that sought Thee not; Who saidst, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by Thy Name; vouchsafe Thine especial aid to all those who go out into distant lands, to declare Thine honour unto the heathen and Thy wonders unto all people; hear the prayers of Thy people, who keep not silence before Thee, and give Thee no rest, till Thou establish, and till Thou make Jerusalem a praise in the earth: and hasten the time when the heathen shall fear Thy Name, O Lord, and all the kings of the earth Thy Majesty; when the Lord shall build up Sion, and when Thy glory shall appear; when all people shall rejoice before Thee, and sing praises to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for evermore. Amen.

Thanksgiving to the Son.

WHAT returns of love and thanksgiving can I make to Thee, O Christ, our God and King, for Thine ineffable love to us and to all mankind, Who hast called Thy banished ones, who sometime were far off and strangers to the covenants of promise, and hast made us nigh by Thy precious blood, and hast brought us into fellowship and communion with Thee, and made us capable of obtaining a happy and joyful life with Thee in Thy eternal Kingdom. O continue Thy favour towards us, and make us fellow-citizens with the saints and of the household of God, that we may render glory, honour, and adoration to Thee, and Thy Father, and the Holy Spirit, now and evermore. Invocation and Prayer for Pardon.

O MERCIFUL God, who givest pardon and consolation to the foolish and sinful; open the door of Thy compassion to my prayers, and receive my unworthy confessions, according to the multitude of Thy mercies. Behold, Lord, I bow myself in heart and soul before Thee, acknowledging my sins and provocations; humbly praying and entreating Thy goodness that Thou wouldst pardon them every one, and largely bestow upon me the riches of Thy grace and loving-kindness; and grant that with purity of mind and body I may offer to Thee holy worship and an acceptable offering, well-pleasing in Thy sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Father of lights, enlighten their minds; preserve them from error, and lead them into the right knowledge of all truth. Grant that they may sedulously devote themselves to whatsoever studies or pursuits Thy providence shall call them; and adorn them with that modesty and humbleness of spirit which Thou delightest to reward. Give them healthy minds, upright and faithful hearts, singly devoted to please Thee; that they may be comforts to their parents, and sincere members of Christ's Body, the Church. Imbue their spirits with the heavenly treasures of wisdom laid up in Thy holy Scriptures, which are able to make them wise unto salvation: and let Thy word be their ruler and guide in so discharging the duties of this life, that they may not fail to attain the heavenly life, through the merits of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Thanksgiving.

Most merciful Father, the God of our salvation, how shall I speak of all Thy manifold and great mercies to us. While we wandered in many paths, Thou sought-est us out, and by various means recalledst us. Thou didst raise up just men in times of old, who shewed us the way of truth. Thou gavest the Law, as a testimony to our own consciences of good and evil. Thou didst send prophets who foretold our future deliverance; testifying by signs and miracles and mighty deeds, that they were in truth the dispensers of Thy treasury. Last of all, when the fulness of time was come, Thou spakest to us by Thy Son, by Whom Thou madest the worlds; Who, being the Brightness of Thy glory and the express Image of Thy person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sate down on the right hand of the Majesty on high. Intercession to the Son.

O HOLY and adorable Jesu Christ, exalt the horn of Thy holy universal Church. Bless and spare all Bishops the Stewards of Thy mysteries, and all Curates who administer the same, and all Thy faithful people who attend upon their ministrations. Cherish and provide for the orphans, help the widows, strengthen the poor and broken in spirit, fill the hungry with good things, and multiply those who call upon Thy Holy Name. Pity and visit the heathen, and all those who know Thee not; be merciful unto them, and cause Thy face to shine upon them; that Thy way may be known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations. O hasten that time of blessed promise, when Thou shalt see of the travail of Thy soul, and shalt be satisfied; when all the ends of the world shall remember themselves, and be turned unto the Lord, and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before Thee; that by all, and in all things, and for all things, Thy blessed Name may be praised and glorified, Who, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, art one God, blessed for ever. Amen. Parily S. M.; Spr.

O Father Almighty, accept my unceasing thanks for all Thy benefits toward us; Who hast so commended Thy love to us, sinners and enemies, that Thou hast redeemed us with the precious blood of Thy Son, and sendest Thy Holy Spirit to help and sanctify us. Be pleased, O Lord, to continue Thy loving-kindness to us, and to keep us perpetually in Thy fear. Deliver our hearts from all worldly concupiscence, and from all evil imaginations; that we may sincerely and joyfully give thanks unto Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O MERCIFUL and gracious Lord, look down upon me from the seat of Thy glory, since with a humble spirit and a contrite heart, with bended knees I confess my sins before Thee; beseeching Thee, O Lord, that as Thou hast created, saved, and redeemed us, so also Thou wouldst forgive us our sins, and unite us into Thy family. Make us to enter through the door into Thy fold, call us to Thine heritage; take us into Thine house, collect us at Thy feast, comfort us by Thy hope, command us to come to Thy kingdom; pity us according to Thy grace, and grant us the abundance of Thy benefits; that we may render praise and adoration to Thee, through Thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ. Invocation.

O Invisible and Incomprehensible God, Ineffable and Infinite, Who dwellest in the Holy of Holies, in a secret habitation, not made with hands, above the Heaven of Heavens; Who castest down imaginations and every high thing that exalteth itself against Thy wisdom, and bringest into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; Thou Most Blessed; look down upon me Thy unworthy servant out of the habitation of Thy eternal kingdom. Send unto me the gifts of Thy Divine grace, the indwelling of Thy Holy Spirit; for Thou art rich in mercy, and abundant in blessing, and of infinite love: grant that I may ask of Thee those things which are proper for me to ask and for Thee to give; for Thou hast an inexhaust-

For a Blessing on reading the Holy Scriptures.

O God, Who by Thy Spirit spakest to us in the Prophets, and by the Apostles didst preach unto us the doctrine sufficient to inspire our minds with wisdom, and through them hast commended to us that which may purify the spiritual senses of the soul, and cleanse the inlets of our hearts; I beseech and implore Thy love towards us, and Thy wonderful grace, that Thou wouldest open our hearts to receive Thy holy word, which has been delivered to us from of old, and in which are set down the precepts and rules for our instruction in righteousness, and for the direction of our lives in uprightness and holiness: that in all our thoughts words, and works, we may be governed by Thy holy teaching and guidance; through Jesus Christ our Lord. For Wife or Husband.

O God, by Whose favour and providence Thy servant and his wife (or, her husband) are made one flesh, look mercifully upon us from heaven and bless us, and make us instrumental to the eternal salvation of each other. Give us grace, that we may faithfully perform our marriage vows, that we may live in perfect love and peace together, in a conscientious obedience to Thy laws, and in a comfortable prospect of happiness all our days. Give us grace that we may teach our children and household the fear of God, and be examples to them of piety and religion. Continue to us such a share of the good things of this world as to Thee seems most meet for us; and whatever our condition shall be, enable us to be content and thankful. Vouchsafe us a share in the happiness of the next life, and Thy blessed will be done for what shall happen to us in this. Hear me, O God, for Jesus Christ's sake, the Son of Thy love. Amen. W.

And Children.

REMEMBER, O Lord, with Thy favour our dear children. Teach them early to see the fault and corruption of their nature. Renew in them a penitent, believing, and pure heart. Enable them to exercise a lively faith in Thy Son Jesus Christ, that they may walk before Thee in the spirit of adoption, as heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ. Take possession of their hearts and rule their lives; that so they may continue Thine for ever, and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more, until they come to Thine everlasting kingdom, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Redeemer. Intercession.

GRACIOUS Father, I humbly beseech Thee for Thy holy Catholic Church; fill it with all truth and peace. Remember

For Pardon.

O God of infinite mercy, let Thy merciful compassion be moved toward me Thy sinful creature, who call upon Thy Holy Name, penitently bewailing my sins and imploring Thy forgiveness. Shut not up Thy tender compassion on account of my iniquities, nor let Thy face be changed against me because of the multitude of my transgressions. For I humbly confess, O God, that I have done wickedly, unjustly, and foolishly, and have provoked Thee to anger day after day, neither have I truly observed even one of Thy commandments. Deal not therefore with me after my iniquities, neither render me according to my deservings; but shew forth the help of Thy grace toward my evil nature; pour out the streams of Thy mercy upon my wickedness, and wash away my sins. Blot out in me whatsoever deserves Thy righteous indignation, and grant me a full pardon and absolution from my offences; shew the light of Thy countenance upon me and I shall be whole. O Lord, give us the victory over all the enemies of our salvation, that we may be remembered among the called to Thy kingdom, and be invited to sit down with Thee in Heaven, and to enjoy the light of Thy favour for evermore. And Children.

MOST gracious and merciful Father, I thank Thee that Thou hast vouchsafed, by Thy holy sacrament of Baptism, to receive our dear children into the ark of Thy Church, and to count them among the sheep of Thy fold. Let Thy continual blessing be upon them, I most humbly pray Thee; and grant unto them all the privileges of the adoption whereby Thou hast taken them into the number of Thy children. Nourish them, good Lord, with the bread of life, and give them living water to drink, that it may be in them a well of water springing up into everlasting life; that they, with us and all whom Thou hast entrusted to our care, may grow up in the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of Thy Son, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ. Grant this, O God, Who art rich in mercy, for Thy dear Son's sake, our Lord. Amen.

Intercession for the Increase of Christ's Church on the Earth.

O HEAVENLY Father, Who in Thy Divine compassion for Thy wayward and wandering creatures, wast pleased to bruise the Only-begotten Son of Thy love, our Lord Jesus Christ, and hast put Him to grief, and hast made His soul an offering and a propitiation for the sins of the whole world; suffer not, I humbly beseech Thee, Thy gracious purpose to fail, but let it prosper in His hands, that He may see of the travail of His soul, and be satisfied: that the barren which did not bear may shout for joy, and they that did not travail may break forth into singing, and cry aloud; and that Thy seed may burst forth with increase on the right hand and on the left, and may inherit the Gentiles, and inhabit the desolate cities: when the Lord our Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, the Maker and the Husband of His Church, shall be known among all nations, and shall be called the God of the whole earth: Who liveth and reigneth with Thee, O Father, and the Holy Ghost, one God for evermore, world without end. Amen.

Thanksgiving.

O Lord, Who can comprehend or tell all Thy secret and hidden benefits to us and to all men! Who, when we were unworthy, hast made us worthy, and hast brought us out of nothing into existence; Who hast lifted us up from the lowest depths to the lofty dignity of Thy sons! I beseech Thee, O Lord, remove far from us those transitory pleasures, which turn away the mind from Thee, and fix it through evil concupiscence upon inferior things; but multiply unto us those good and stable pleasures, which are foretastes of Divine things, and lift the mind to heaven. And grant that we may be made worthy to be joined and united by means of Thy word and sacraments to the assemblies of Thy saints; that we may render glory and praise to Thee and Thy Son and Thy most Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. O Lord God, spare us, I beseech Thee, and put away all our iniquities, neither impute them unto us, for no man living is justified in Thy sight, neither hath any one, born of woman, ever been free from the stains of sin, save only Thy blessed Son. I implore of the depth of Thy compassion, that Thou wilt be merciful unto us, who are weak, and prone to sin, and that Thou wilt keep us from the hands of those by whom we may be led into pernicious error, tending to destruction. But grant that we may walk in Thy ways, and do Thy will, and find mercy, and an acceptable confidence in Thee: and in Thy good time a happy end, and boldness to stand before the terrible Throne

For Grace and Preservation.

GRANT, O Lord, that we may live as becometh Thy saints, and make us worthy the portion of those who surround Thy Throne. Impart to us the doctrine of the Apostles, which affords a spiritual nourishment to those who receive it by faith; for Thou art the Helper of the poor, and the Relief of the needy, Who dost dispense to Thy creatures the means of life, and by many ways effect their preservation: Thou every day openest Thine hand, which is sufficient for all, and of Thy goodness fillest all things living with plenteousness. Deliver us, O Lord, from all evil this day, and preserve us by Thy good providence, and turn from us and from all Thy creatures wrath and punishment, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. S.

For Wife or Husband.

ALMIGHTY God, Who at the first didst form woman out of man, knit together the hearts of Thy servant and his wife (or, her husband) in that spiritual affection, which will last beyond the grave, and which will make us to be one in that heavenly state, where they neither marry nor are given in marriage. Here let us live as one with our Saviour, that we may there be united to Him for ever. And the more we enjoy the help and comfort which Thou hast provided for each in the other, let us be the more thankful unto Thee, Thou Giver of all good gifts, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. C. G.

And Children.

O LORD Jesus Christ, Who hast redeemed us and all the sons of Thy Holy Church with Thy most precious Blood; visit, and quicken, I humbly beseech Thee, our dear children, whom Thou by Holy Baptism hast made members of Thee, their Head and Saviour, and united into Thy family. And as Thou hast thus brought them into Thy fold, so do Thou help them by Thy right hand: count them with Thy lambs, govern them by Thy love, direct them in Thy way. Make them reverent and holy; teachable and observant of all heavenly precepts; temperate and chaste in their lives; dutiful and loving towards their parents; gentle, patient, and courteous to all. So, Lord, do Thou adorn them with the graces of Thy Spirit, assist them with Thy tender compassion, and sanctify them by Thy truth; that they may grow up in Thy holy ways, and render acceptable praise and adoration to Thee, with Thy Father, and the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

THRICE Holy art Thou, O God, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Whom we and all Thy creatures adore and magnify, as subsisting in Three Persons, without any division of substance, One Invisible God. Who didst so love mankind, that when we had fallen from our original glory and likeness to Thee, and should have perished by transgression of Thy command, Thou didst send Thine only-begotten Son for our salvation; Who took upon Him our flesh, and made it Divine by an ineffable union, and prepared the way for our ascension into heaven; having made perfect our nature, and fulfilled the law: Who also didst send Thy Holy Spirit to sanctify us, and build us up for an habitation of the living God. O Lord, we cannot worthily praise Thee for this Thine unspeakable love; but do Thou add yet this one thing to Thy former gifts, that we may not be any longer unworthy of them, nor disappoint Thy grace, and cause Thee to repent of all Thy care for us; but that, ever seeking Thy glory in our whole lives, we may come to Thy glory everlasting, and be made white in the blood of the spotless Lamb, through the grace and mercy of the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Dies Mandati.

O Thou, Who as on this day didst lay Thy commands upon Thy Disciples, and in them upon all who should thenceforward become learners and followers of Thee, that they should wash one another's feet, even as Thou, Master, and Lord, didst wash Thy Disciples' feet; and that they should eat of Thy holy Body and drink of Thy most precious Blood in remembrance of Thee; and should love one another as Thou lovedst them, even unto the end,—give unto us and unto Thy whole Church the spirit of true humility and loving helpfulness; the spirit of godly fear and awe of Thy most precious sacrifice, O Lamb of God, Who wast slain for the sins of the whole world, Priest and Victim, which we commemorate with perpetual thanksgiving; and the spirit of brotherly love, that we may be known thereby as Thy disciples, and enjoy communion with all Thy saints; till, through Thy merits and intercession, we be numbered with them in glory and in the light of Thy countenance for evermore. Amen.

Good Friday.

The Passion and Death of Christ.

LORD Jesus Christ, Thou Holy and spotless Lamb of God, Who didst take upon Thyself the curse of sin which was due to us; with all the heavenly host of the redeemed we unite in ascribing unto Thee power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. We bless Thee for all the burdens Thou hast borne, for all the tears Thou hast wept, for all the pains Thou hast suffered, for every drop of blood Thou hast shed, for every word of comfort Thou hast spoken on the Cross, for every conflict with the powers of darkness, and for Thine eternal victory over the terrors of death and the pains of hell. To Thy blessed Name be everlasting glory. Amen.

Easter Eve.

For Perfection in Christ.

O God, Who art rich in mercy to all, Who madest Thy Son to be the Light of the world, and yet to pass through the darkness of the grave, to save us from eternal death; we beseech Thee to make us complete in Him. Give us grace to live as He lived, to suffer with the resignation with which He suffered, and to depart commending our spirits into Thine hands. And grant that after death, we may in Thine appointed time be made sharers in His triumph over the grave, and in the glory of His resurrection: that in all things we may be like unto our Elder Brother, the Author and Finisher of our faith; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. From Euch.

Easter Day.

The Resurrection of Christ.

ALMIGHTY God, Who hast brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the glorious Prince of salvation, with everlasting victory over hell and the grave; grant unto us power, we beseech Thee, to rise with Him to newness of life; that we may overcome the world with the victory of faith, and have part at last in the resurrection of the just; through the merits of the same risen Saviour, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Easter-tide.

LET God arise among us, and let all His and our enemies be scattered. Amen.

O LORD Jesus, grant that we, putting off the garment of the old man by the putting away our sins, may put on newness of spirit with beauty of Christian virtues. Thou, Who hast conquered death by Thine own death, defend us from the power of the second death. And Thou, Who by Thy resurrection gavest life to the world, deliver us from present and from future evil. That we who have received the hope of resurrection by Thee, the Victor, may also inherit, through Thy gift, an eternity of beatitude: through Thy mercy, O Lord God, Who livest and reignest, world without end. Amen.

Ascension-tide.

BLESSED Jesus, our Lord, Who, when about to return to heaven, didst bequeath peace to Thy disciples, be pleased to preserve that peace whole and undefiled in us; and give unto us to be our guard the holy angels whom Thou didst choose to be Thine own escort; that Thou being our Guide, we may thither ascend by faith, where we hope to be carried for our eternal rest: through Thy mercy, O Lord God, Who livest and reignest, world without end. Amen.

Whitsun-tide.

The Descent of the Holy Spirit.

God of all peace and consolation, Who didst gloriously fulfil the great promise of the Gospel, by sending down Thy Holy Ghost on the day of Pentecost, to establish the Church as the house of His continual presence and power among men, mercifully grant unto us, we beseech Thee, this same gift of the Spirit to renew, illuminate, refresh, and sanctify our dying souls, to be over us and around us like the light and dew of heaven; and to be in us evermore as a well of water springing up into everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord; to Whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, be honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

For Trinity Sunday.

O God, Eternal, Infinite, Incomprehensible, Who hast revealed Thyself to us as our Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier, bestow upon us, we humbly beseech Thee, Thy tender compassion; preserve us in life, make us holy in all our thoughts and deeds, and save us in death; that we may be joined with those who surround Thy Throne, and render glory and honour and thanks to Thee, for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayers before Service.

The following Prayers, one or more, may be used either at Home or in Church.

I. O God, who hast provided for us in this place a Temple made holy and set apart for Thy worship and service; dispose our hearts, and the hearts of our children, to reverence Thy Sanctuary; and vouchsafe, we most earnestly beseech Thee, to be there in the midst of us, this day; pardoning our sins and our great unworthiness, enabling us heartily to present to Thee our own selves, our souls and bodies, a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable unto Thee; and giving us the most precious gift of Thy Holy Spirit, to make us holy in heart and life: that so we may be counted worthy to enter Thy Temple above, to live in Thy Presence, to behold the Face of the Lamb, and to sing praises to Thy most Holy and Blessed Name for evermore. Grant this, O merciful Father, for the merits' sake of Thy Son Jesus Christ, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

II. O Lord our Master, Jesus Christ, Co-eternal Word of the Father Who is without beginning, Who wast made like unto us in all things, yet without sin, for the salvation of our race; Who didst send forth Thy holy Disciples and Apostles to teach and to preach the Gospel of Thy Kingdom, and to heal all disease and all weakness among Thy people; send forth now also, O Master, Thy light and Thy truth; illumine the eyes of our understanding to the perception of Thy divine oracles; and make us fit to be hearers of them; and not hearers only, but also doers of the word; being created that we should bear fruit, and bring forth good fruit, even to thirty-fold, and a hundred-fold; that we may be accounted worthy of the kingdom of heaven: and let Thy compassion speedily prevent us in this and all our doings: for Thou, O Lord God, art the Angel of good tidings[a], the Saviour and Guardian of our souls and bodies; and to Thee we offer up glory, and thanksgiving, and the thrice-holy hymn: to the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen. ℳ.

III. O Beneficent King of Ages, and Founder of all creation, receive favourably Thy Church which approaches Thee through Thy Christ; fulfil to each one of us that which to him is profitable; lead us all unto perfection, and make us worthy of the grace of Thy sanctification, bringing us together in Thy holy Church which Thou hast purchased for Thyself with the precious blood of Thine only-begotten Son, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; with Whom Thou art blessed and glorified, with Thy all-holy, good, and life-giving Spirit, now and evermore. Amen. ℑ.

IV. O God, the Giver of life and the Bestower of good things, Who hast given to men the blessed hope of everlasting life, our Lord Jesus Christ; make us meet to perform before Thee in holiness the divine service, to the enjoyment of present and future blessedness; so that, being always guarded by Thy power, and guided into the light of truth, we may render glory and thanksgiving to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen. ℑ.

Prayers after Service.

I. O God, Who hast sounded in our ears Thy divine and saving oracles, enlighten the souls of us sinners unto the full comprehension of those things that have been declared; that we may not only be seen as listeners to spiritual words, but also be doers of good works, aiming at faith without guile, a blameless life, and conduct without reproach; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

II. Proceeding from power to power, and having fulfilled in Thy temple all Thy divine worship, we now beseech Thee, O Lord our God, to count us worthy of Thy perfect love to man: direct aright our way; establish us firmly in Thy fear; and make us meet for Thy heavenly kingdom in Christ Jesus our Lord, with Whom Thou art blessed with Thy all-holy, good, and quickening Spirit, now and throughout all eternity. Amen.

Prayers before Communion.

If a Priest, and about to Celebrate.

DESPISE me not, O Lord, our Master and our God, though defiled by a multitude of sins; for Thou seest that I would approach Thy divine and heavenly mystery, not as being worthy: but, looking only to Thy goodness, I send up to Thee the cry, God, be merciful to me a sinner! I have sinned against heaven and before Thy face, and am not worthy to look upon Thy sacred and spiritual Table [b], on which Thine only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, sacrificed for me a sinner all stained with defilement, will be mystically set forth. Wherefore I offer unto Thee this my supplication, and thanksgiving, that Thy Holy Spirit the Comforter may be sent to me, to strengthen and prepare me for this ministry. And make me worthy, O Lord, to declare without condemnation to the people the tidings which have been told me from Thee [c], through Christ Jesus our Lord: together with Whom Thou art blessed, with Thine all-holy, and good, and life-giving Spirit, of one substance with Thee, now, and always, and for evermore. Amen. ℣.

A Prayer which may be said while the Priest is presenting the Alms, and placing the Elements on the Lord's Table.

Thou, Who art good and full of love to man, remember those who bring it to Thee, and those by whom they bring it, although we do but offer to Thee of Thine own; and vouchsafe to keep us without condemnation in the service of Thy divine mysteries: for the sake of Thine all-holy and most honourable Name, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; which has been hallowed and glorified now and always, and throughout all ages. Amen.

These Prayers also may be used either at Home, or in Church during the Administration; before and after Individual Reception.

I. O Holy, Most High, awe-inspiring Lord, Thou, Who restest upon the sacred mysteries, Thyself sanctify us and make us worthy of Thine awful Priesthood, Prayers after Communion.

I. We give thanks to Thee, O Master and Lord, our God, for the participation of the holy, pure, and heavenly mysteries, which Thou hast given us for the welfare and sanctification and salvation of our souls and bodies: and we pray and beseech Thee, good Lord, Lover of all, to bless to us the communion of the holy Body and precious Blood of Thine only-begotten Son,—that our faith may be without shame, our love without dissimulation; and that it may replenish and strengthen us for the fulness of piety, for the defeat of the adversary, for the keeping of Thy commandments, for the nourishment and refreshing of our souls on our way to eternal life, and for our acceptable defence at the dread throne of Thy Christ: through Whom, and with Whom be glory and power to Thee, with Thy Holy, Good, and Life-giving Spirit, for evermore. Amen. ℳ.

II. Thou hast given us, O Lord, sanctification in the partaking of the all-holy Body and the precious Blood of Thine only-begotten Son,—give us likewise the grace and the gift of the all-holy Spirit; and keep us blameless in this life, and lead us unto the perfect redemption and adoption as sons, and to the eternal joys which are to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. ℳ.

III. Fill our mouth with Thy praise, O Lord, and our lips with joy, that we may sing Thy Glory and Thy Majesty all the day long. ℑ.

IV. We give thanks to Thee, O Christ, our God, that Thou hast thought us meet to partake of Thy Body and Blood, for the remission of sins unto eternal life. Keep us without condemnation, we beseech Thee, for Thou art good and kind.

V. We give thanks to Thee, the God and Saviour of all, for all the good things Thou hast given us, and for the participation of Thy holy and immaculate mysteries; and we bring before Thee the incense of praise, beseeching Thee to keep us under the shadow of Thy wings, and make us meet until our last breath of life to share in Thy holy things; for the sanctification of our souls and bodies, unto the inheritance of the kingdom of heaven: for Thou, O God, art our light and our salvation; and to Thee we render glory and thanksgiving, to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for evermore. Amen.

VI. Glory to Thee, glory to Thee, glory to Thee, O Christ, our King, the only-begotten Word of the Father, for that Thou hast counted us sinners and Thine unworthy servants meet for the enjoyment of Thy undefiled mysteries, for the remission of sins, and for eternal life. Glory be to Thee. Amen.

VII. Proceeding from glory to glory, we sing hymns to Thee, the Saviour of our souls. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, now and for evermore. We sing hymns to Thee, the Saviour of our souls. Amen and Amen.

Various Family Seasons.

A Prayer for a Wife to use when her Husband is in any great Distress.

O Heavenly Father, Who art very pitiful and of tender compassion, lend Thy merciful ear to my petitions in behalf of Thy servant my beloved husband, who is now in great distress and perplexity of mind (by reason of [here name[e] the particular cause]), and whose spirit is overwhelmed within him. Teach him, O Lord, that affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground, but that Thou ordainest

[e] If the grief can be expressed in words, it is better on every account to do so, and as briefly as may be. But if otherwise, let it at least be recalled to the mind distinctly, though, it may be, rapidly. For although our desires are known unto God before we can even frame them into language, it is no little comfort that we derive from spreading our whole case before the Lord when we seek Him in prayer.

all things, and hast appointed his present trial. Restrain him therefore, O Lord, from sinning against Thee by complaining of Thy rod, and enable him both to hope and quietly to wait for Thy salvation. Pity him, gracious Father; and in the multitude of the sorrows that he hath in his heart, let Thy comforts refresh his soul. Restore him to his former confidence in Thee, and let this present disappointment wean his heart from too much carefulness for worldly things; and bring us both to a more quiet submission to Thy righteous will, and a more perfect reliance on Thy never-failing grace and love, through Him Who hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows, Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for a Wife to offer for her Husband, lest he be too anxious about worldly things; also for a reasonable Success in his Affairs.

O Thou Who hearest prayer, let Thy merciful ears be attentive to the petitions of Thine handmaid, who from her heart entreats Thy preventing and sustaining grace for her dear husband. The crowding cares of this world, its labour and travail, surround and exhaust him: O Thou good Husbandman, let not these ever-springing thorns prevail to choke the good seed which Thou sowest; but let the dew of Thy Holy Spirit water it, that it may bring forth good fruit. Amidst all his temptations, perplexities, and crosses, let not sin darken the approach to Thy mercy-seat, but casting all his care upon Thee, may he of Thee find help and peace.

Yet, O gracious Lord, do Thou, according to Thy good pleasure, prosper his undertakings, and grant him good success in all things agreeable to Thy will: only let not his heart be overcharged with the cares of this life; but putting his whole trust in Thy wisdom and love, may he contentedly and thankfully resign himself in all things to Thy most righteous disposal, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The remaining Prayers are to be used by the Husband and Wife together.

For the Anniversary of Marriage; or Close of the Year.

O ALMIGHTY and gracious Father, we humbly and heartily thank Thee that Thou hast mercifully brought us in safety and happiness to the close of this (first &c.) year of our union, (or, of this year,) and for Thy great goodness and loving-kindness vouchsafed to us and our dear children during the course of it. Forgive, we pray Thee, O merciful God, whatsoever Thy holy eyes have seen amiss in us during our wedded life, whatever of wilfulness and impatience we have shewn in our behaviour to each other, and whatever ingratitude we have manifested by our conduct towards Thee, Who in Thy good providence broughtest us together. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for every occasion whereby we have shewn, by thought, word, or deed, that we were undeserving of, and lightly esteemed, such Thy great goodness to us. Forgive, O Lord, both Thy servant and Thine handmaid; and give us grace to seek Thee more earnestly and entirely for the time to come, and to love each other with a more fervent, pure, and self-denying affection. Go on, we beseech Thee, to be gracious to us (and to the dear children whom Thou hast given us), through the ensuing year, and for as long as Thou mayest be pleased to continue us together in this world; that we may be more observant of Thee and of Thy undeserved grace, more diligent to promote Thy glory, more affectionately bound to each other, and more careful and vigilant in the training up our children in Thy nurture and admonition. [Especially, O merciful Lord, have regard unto Thy handmaid, granting her a continuance of health during her pregnancy, a humble reliance on Thy fatherly care of her, and a happy and a joyful issue thereto.]

Grant these our humble supplications, and accept our thanksgivings, most gracious Father, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our compassionate Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Prayers before Childbirth. One to be used with the nightly Devotions.

I. ALMIGHTY God, the Father of all mercy and comfort, of whose only gift it is that the womb becometh fruitful; graciously behold Thy humble and unworthy handmaid; that as by Thy good providence she hath conceived a child within her womb, into which Thou hast breathed a spirit of life, so by Thy continual aid she may be preserved with it from all perils; and at the fulness of her time may safely bring it forth into the world, to the joy and comfort of our souls, and to the glory of Thy Holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Or, as the Time draws nearer, one of the following.

II. MERCIFUL Lord, Who when Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man didst not abhor the Virgin's womb, but when the fulness of time came wast Thyself made of a woman; we beseech Thee for Thy tender pity and goodness to protect and strengthen this Thine handmaid against all the danger and pains of her labour and travail; that through Thy most mighty aid she may be safely delivered of this happy fruit which Thou hast created in her womb. And when it is born and brought forth into the world, vouchsafe also that it may be born again by Baptism, and brought up in Thy holy religion, till it be finally brought to Thine everlasting kingdom; where, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, Thou livest and reignest, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

III. O LORD God, Who art the Father of them that trust in Thee, and shewest mercy to a thousand generations of them that fear Thee; have mercy upon this Thy servant now great with child; be pleased to give her a joyful and safe deliverance. And let Thy grace preserve the fruit of her womb, and conduct our offspring to the holy Sacrament of Baptism, that our babe, as yet unborn, may there be regenerated by Thy Spirit, and adopted into Thy family, and the portion and duty of a child of God, to live thereafter to Thy glory; through Jesus Christ. Thanksgiving after Childbirth.

GRACIOUS God, by whose providence we are all fearfully and wonderfully made, Who beholdest us when we are yet imperfect, and in whose book are all our members written; we humbly beg Thee to accept this our reverence of Thy power, and to receive this our most hearty praise and thanksgiving, which we now offer to Thy Divine majesty, for Thy blessed favour and goodness towards Thine handmaid, in vouchsafing to assist her during the time of this her dangerous travail, and to bless her with a joyful benediction, even the fruit of her own womb. Continue, we most humbly beseech Thee, Thy gracious care over her, and restore her in Thy good time to health and strength; and fill our hearts with gratitude and our lips with Thy praise. Behold, O Lord, what Thine own hands alone have fashioned; and grant that this little infant which Thou hast made by Thy power, may be preserved by Thy goodness, and forthwith enjoying the benefit of Thy Holy Baptism, may be made a lively member of Thy Church, and be carefully brought up to serve Thee in all godliness and honesty; through the merits of Thy well-beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer before Baptism.

O MERCIFUL Lord Jesu, Who wast pleased by Thy nativity to be made of a woman, and by circumcision to be made under the law, that Thou mightest redeem them that were under the law; Who didst also condescend to be baptized of John in Jordan, that Thou mightest fulfil all righteousness; and, after Thou hadst established a new and better covenant with mankind, making old the first, and hadst ratified it with the seal of Thy most bitter passion and death, didst institute the holy Sacrament of Baptism, as a sign to all Thy disciples in every nation of the cleansing of the soul from sin by Thy most precious Blood, and as a means whereby the gifts and graces of Thy Holy Spirit may be bestowed; look graciously, we most earnestly entreat Thee, upon our dear infant, whom we are about to dedicate to Thee in Holy Baptism.

Remember Thy gracious promise of the remission ot sins, which is unto us and to our children and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. Vouchsafe, O Lord, to call him to Thyself, the door of the sheep, that he may enter in with the chosen lambs of Thy flock, and be saved, and may go in and out and find pasture. Cleanse him from all defilements of the flesh which he hath inherited from us his sinful parents, and create in him a clean heart and a new spirit. Fulfil him, O Lord, with the grace of Thy blessed Spirit, and receive him into Thy holy Church; that he may be no longer a child of wrath and of the flesh, but a child of grace, and an inheritor of Thy kingdom. And help him evermore by Thy right hand against all the enemies of his salvation; of Thy tender compassion assist him against all temptations, and save him by Thy cross: that in Thy good time, he, with us and all ours, may be called to Thy Marriage Feast in the eternal kingdom, where Thou reignest, with the Father, and the Holy Ghost, for evermore. Amen.

Thanksgiving after Baptism.

O MOST gracious and merciful Father, we devoutly thank Thee for all the great and precious benefits which Thou hast conveyed to us in the blessed laver of regeneration, whereby we have been washed, and sanctified, and justified, in the Name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God. We thank Thee especially at this time that Thou hast vouchsafed by Thy holy Sacrament of Baptism to receive our dear infant into the ark of Thy Church, and to count him among the sheep of Thy fold. Let Thy continual blessing be upon him, we most humbly pray Thee; and grant unto him all the privileges of the adoption whereby Thou hast taken him into the number of Thy children. Nourish him, good Lord, with the bread of life, and give him living water to drink, that it may be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. Grant us likewise Thy heavenly grace, that if it should please Thee to continue him in life, we may be diligent to feed him early with the sincere milk of the word, that he may grow thereby, and taste of Thy graciousness, and become worthy in Thy good time to be fed with strong meat; that he with us, and all whom Thou hast entrusted to our care, may grow up in the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of Thy Son, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ. Grant this, O God, Who art rich in mercy, for Thy great love wherewith Thou hast loved us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anniversary of Baptism.

If of a Child, and of sufficient age, let him be brought into the usual place of prayer, and be there reminded of the Day, and of the solemn obligations wherewith he was bound in his Baptism. By omitting the words within brackets, this Prayer may be used for very young children.

O LORD, heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, Who of Thine infinite goodness towards Thy servant, (or handmaid, or this our dear child N.——,) when he was born in sin, and was no other than an heir of everlasting wrath, didst vouchsafe that he should as upon this day be born again of water and the Holy Ghost, in the blessed laver of Baptism, being thereby made a member of Christ and an heir of eternal life; for this Thine inestimable favour we do here gratefully commemorate that happy day, and with most humble and hearty will we do extol the abundant riches of Thy glorious grace. Enable him [now], O Lord, [(in our presence, and) in Thy sight, and in the sight of Thy holy angels, with all the company of heaven,] to renew that sacred vow which was made in his name, to forsake this wicked world, and to live as a Christian ought to do, in obedience to Thy holy faith and commandments: and we most humbly beseech Thee of Thy great mercy [to pardon him all former breaches of his solemn promise, and] to endue him with the assistance of Thy Holy Spirit, that henceforth he may walk in newness of life, worthy of that blessed estate whereunto Thou hast called him, and keeping himself unspotted from the world, the flesh, and the devil, he may die daily unto sin, for which cause he was baptized into the death of Christ: and as he hath had his part this day in the first regeneration, so we may both (or, so he, with us and all ours, may) at the last day have our part in the second and great regeneration of the world, to live and reign with Thee for ever, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

On a Birthday.

To be used as the preceding Prayer, either by the Husband and Wife alone, or with a Child.

ALMIGHTY God, the Father and Maker of all things, by Whose blessed goodness we were fearfully and wonderfully made in our mother's womb, and unto Whose blessed providence we have been left ever since we were born, and hung upon our mother's breast; we praise and magnify Thy glorious Name for this Thy great goodness to Thy servant; (or, handmaid; or, this our dear child N.— ;) most humbly beseeching Thee that we may both (or, all) be taught to number our days and to apply our hearts unto wisdom; that we may know to what end we were born, and had both body and life given us, even to serve Thee the living God; that we may bewail our sinful years past, and spend the rest of our time here in a godly, righteous, and sober life; that as he has now finished —— years of his life here in Thy favour, so he may continue and finish up the remainder of his days in Thy fear; and that, as Thou didst upon this day take him out of his mother's womb to live here a little time, so Thou mayest at the last day take us both (or, all) out of our mother's womb again, even the grave and womb of the earth, to live with Thee for ever; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Before a Journey.

To be used by either Husband or Wife for the other, or by both together for a Child.

O MERCIFUL Lord, our Protector and Guide, Who art here and everywhere present, I humbly commend into Thy hands my beloved husband, (wife, or child N.—,) now about to commence a journey. Let Thy presence, I pray Thee, go with him, or else carry him not forth. And, as Thou didst go up with Thy people Israel, and lead them through the wilderness, so let the Angel of Thy presence accompany Thy servant; prosper his journey, bless his going out and his coming in, and conduct him throughout in peace and safety, for the sake of Thy dear Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thanksgiving after a Journey.

To be said by either Husband or Wife, alone or together, for the Safety of either or both, or of any of their Children.

O THOU Who didst save Peter in the waves, and Paul in shipwreck, and dost preserve Thy people in journeyings often and in perils both by sea and land; we heartily thank Thee for carrying us (or, Thy servant N.——) in safety through the dangers of a long journey, and bringing us home (or, to the end of it) in peace and comfort. We bless Thee, O God, for all the things that Thou hast done for us, and we magnify Thy Name for this additional mercy vouchsafed unto us. O that we may turn to Thee with our whole heart, and with our whole mind, and deal uprightly before Thee, that Thou mayest not hide Thy face from us, but have mercy continually upon us, Thy children and servants, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

For a Child on leaving Home.

SUFFER us, O Lord, in all humility to bring our dear child, N.——, before Thee, to implore Thy blessing on him, and to place him in Thy hands before he leaves us to enter a world of trial and temptation. Keep and preserve him, as it seemeth best to Thy Divine wisdom, in all health and safety, both of body and soul. Without Thee he can do nothing, therefore we beseech Thee to work in him both to will and to do that which is well-pleasing in Thy sight. May the fear and love of Thee, O God, be shed abroad in his heart by the power of the Holy Ghost; bringing forth their blessed fruits of love and obedience, purity, and truth. O lead him not into temptation, but deliver him from the evil. Subdue, we beseech Thee, the fault and corruption of his nature, and look upon him in Thine own most blessed Son; and for His alone sake and merits make him a vessel unto honour, sanctified and meet for Thy holy and happy service, and prepared unto every good work, acceptable unto Thee; through the same Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For a Child before Confirmation.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, Who hast vouchsafed to regenerate by water and the Spirit our dear N.——, who was born in sin and subject to Thy just wrath, and to give him the remission of sin; look, we beseech Thee, with an eye of mercy upon him, Thy unworthy servant, who is now about to renew the vows made for him in holy Baptism. Pour out upon him such a measure of Thy grace, that, mindful of that solemn covenant entered upon with Thee by his sureties, he may continue steadfast in the faith of Christ, daily renew the repentance of his sins, and exercise an unreserved obedience to all Thy Commandments. Strengthen him wholly by the ever-present aid of Thy Spirit, that he may fight manfully against the wiles and assaults of the devil, the evil manners of the world, and the unruly lusts of the flesh: and that thus kept unharmed in spirit, mind, and body by Thy defence, he may pass safely through the waves of this troublesome world to the land of everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

En. J. Anon.

For a Child after the Rite of Confirmation.

MOST good and gracious God, of Whose only gift it is, that we can either will or do anything that is acceptable to Thy Divine Majesty, we most humbly implore Thee to look favourably upon our dear N.——, on whom, after the example of Thine Apostles, as a sign and pledge of Thy grace and good-will, the hands of the Bishop have been laid. Grant that, strengthened in the inner man by Thy Holy Spirit, he may daily increase in al His manifold gifts. Give him, we pray Thee, the spirit of wisdom, whereby he may sanctify Thy Name; the spirit of understanding, by the light of which he may learn the hidden things of Thy kingdom; the spirit of counsel, by whose leading he may carry out the fulfilment of Thy will; the spirit of knowledge, that he may both perceive and diligently follow after all things that may profit his soul; the spirit of love, that, forgiving all who may injure him, he may hope to be forgiven of Thee; the spirit of fear, that he may abhor all the approaches to sin; and the spirit of boldness, by whose aid he may overcome evil. Vouchsafe, O Lord, to grant these things of Thy great mercy, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

En. J. Brian Duppa. Episc.

For a Son about to present Himself for Admission into Holy Orders.

O ETERNAL Son of God, Who art from evermore the Very Power of God and the Wisdom of God, and yet, when Thou wert minded to call the Twelve and ordain them to be Thine Apostles, didst go out into a mountain to pray, and pass the whole night in prayer to God; we most earnestly intreat Thee to look with an eye of favour upon our beloved son, N.——, now purposing, under the guidance, as we humbly trust, of Thy good providence, and in reliance upon the call of Thy Holy Spirit, to offer himself for the sacred ministry of Thy Church. Let the thought of that night of prayer fill him with a deep and abiding sense of the solemn responsibility of the office he desires to take upon himself. Grant unto him all those helps and graces, which but for our ignorance we would ask, all things for which Thou Thyself didst pray. Give unto him a single eye to please Thee, and devote himself to Thy holy and happy service. Let Thy power aid him in all needs; clothe him with wisdom and beauty, that he may win many souls to Thee; and number him among the wise messengers of the glad tidings. Strengthen his weakness by the power of Thy grace, that he may adorn his holy profession by purity, blamelessness, and simplicity of life, by diligence and constant reliance on Thee, by faithfulness and zeal, by vigilance and love. Give him the spirit of fervent devotion and near access in prayer; and grace to serve in Thy public worship with acceptance, and rightly and duly to administer Thy holy Sacraments. Keep him from the errors of these latter days; and endue him with the gift of persuasion; that, reclaiming many of Thy lost sheep, and bringing many sons to glory, he may find mercy of Thee in the great day of account, O Thou Captain of our salvation; Who livest and reignest, in the unity of the Father and the Holy Ghost, for evermore. Amen.

Prayers to be used by Parents previously to the Marriage of any of their Children[f].

I. O God, Thy bountiful favours to [f] If a daughter, ler her be referred to Bishop Taylor's Golden Grove, where she will find Prayers written purposely for her private use.

Thy servants have been very great, and yet Thou art not weary of doing us good. Thy providence, O Lord, is now opening to one of our dear children a way for his future settlement in life: if Thou knowest it to be for his good, O Lord of Love, promote it, and grant Thy blessing upon it. Give Thy grace to Thy servants, both ——and——, that they may proceed in Thy fear; and that in seeking happiness for each other, they may have a just regard for the glory of Thy Name, and desire nothing any further than as it shall conduce to their eternal welfare. Make them a blessing to each other for this life and a better. Grant, O Lord, that they may be helps meet for each other in reference to both worlds, and that their love may be tender and chaste, sincere without guile, pure without alloy, and lasting without decay. O grant them new supplies of Thy grace for this new estate of their lives; that they may fulfil the relation into which they are entering as becometh Thy people. Let them be faithful both to Thee and to each other; and be mutual helps and comforts, both in their temporal and spiritual concerns; ever conspiring together to promote each other's mutual edification. Above all, may they live to glorify and praise Thee our God, through Thy perpetual favour, the aid of Thy Holy Spirit, and the grace and love of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Add, on the Day of the Marriage.

II. ACCOMPANY us, O Lord, to Thy House of Prayer this day: grant us devout thoughts and heavenward affections, and hear and answer the prayers we put up to Thee. Grant especially that Thy servants who are about to be united in holy wedlock, may set their first and chief affections upon Thee and Thy Son Jesus Christ, and may also regard each other with a pure and holy love. Let this day, the first of their wedded life, be also the commencement of a joint life of piety and nearness to Thee. Bless them, O Lord, prosper them in all the events and circumstances of their life, defend and succour them in all adversities and trials, and in Thy due time conduct them in peace and safety to the haven of everlasting rest, through the merits and for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In Time of Sickness.

In time of Sickness there are excellent Prayers, suited to every variety of case, which may be found as well in the Office for the Visitation of the Sick, as in many admirable Manuals in common use. A few however are here inserted, one or more of which may be said with the Morning and Evening Prayers, and one which may be offered for a Person when the Illness is of such a nature that perfect quiet has been prescribed.

A Prayer to be said in the Beginning of a Sickness.

O ALMIGHTY God, merciful and gracious, Who in Thy justice didst send sorrow and tears, sickness and death into the world, as a punishment for man's sins, and hast comprehended all under sin and this sad covenant of sufferings, not to destroy us, but that Thou mightest have mercy upon all, making Thy justice to minister to mercy, short afflictions to an eternal weight of glory; as Thou hast been pleased to turn the sins of this Thy servant into illness, so turn, we beseech Thee, his sickness to the advantage of holiness and religion, of mercy and pardon, of faith and hope, of grace and glory. Thou hast now called him to the fellowship of sufferings; Lord, relieve his sorrow and support his spirit, direct his thoughts, and sanctify his sickness, that the punishment of his sins may be to him a school of virtue. Make him behave as a son under discipline, humbly and obediently, evenly and patiently, that he may be brought by these means nearer unto Thee; that if he shall recover his former health, he may return to the world with greater strength of spirit, to run a new race of stricter holiness and more severe religion; or if he shall pass from hence through the gates of death, he may rejoice in the hope of being admitted into that Heavenly Society, in which all Thy saints and servants shall be comprehended to eternal ages. Grant this, for Jesus Christ's sake, our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

From J. T.[s]

For Spiritual Aid.

ETERNAL God, Holy and Almighty Father, extend (or, continue), we beseech Thee, Thy merciful aid to Thy servant, our dear N.——, whom Thou hast laid low in distress and sickness. Relieve him by Thy power, replenish him with Thy mercy, and let Thy Spirit take up His abode in his heart, that, whether Thou remove his sickness, or continue it, we may still rejoice in Thy blessings upon him, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From E.

For Amendment.

LOOK graciously, O Lord, upon Thy servant, our dear N.——, whom Thou hast visited with Thy loving scourge of sickness. Comfort the soul of Thy servant, the work of Thy hands; that being amended by Thy merciful chastisement, he may always acknowledge Thee for his Saviour and Deliverer, and praise Thee both in his life and in his death, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From E.

For Spiritual Improvement.

O THOU Who art the One true God, Who alone killest and makest alive, Who woundest and healest again, we desire now especially to look to Thee on behalf of this our dear N.——, now suffering from sickness. Visit, comfort, and relieve him; but above all, grant that his sorrows may bring his sins to remembrance in true contrition of heart; and in the multitude of his griefs, let Thy peace and comfort refresh his soul. Assist and guide those around him in their endeavours to minister to his wants; and amidst all our negligences, let Thy mercy do more for him than we could ask or think, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

From E.

For Relief in Pain.

LOOK mercifully, O Lord, upon Thy servant, our dear N.——, who is distressed with sickness, and assist him graciously. Let Thy hand be upon the bed of his sufferings, and assuage his pains; for Thou only art sufficient for his relief. Grant him therefore Thy mighty aid, that when Thy gracious design in afflicting him shall be accomplished, the disease may leave him, and he may recover his former health, to praise and glorify Thee in the face of Thy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From E.

For Reliance upon God.

O GOD, Who hast given to mankind many and excellent gifts, in order to their eternal welfare; grant unto Thy servant N.——, whom Thou hast laid upon the bed of sickness, the gifts and graces of Thy Spirit; that he may acknowledge both the health of his body and the salvation of his soul to be derived from Thee, Who art the giver of every good and perfect gift, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From E.

For Health of Body and Soul.

O Lord and Holy Father, Almighty and Eternal God, who dost perfect Thy strength in our weakness, and makest our bodies healthy and strong; mercifully look upon Thy servant N.——, who is now suffering under Thy hand. Remove, we beseech Thee, the cause, whatever it be, of all his infirmities, and cleanse him from all his spiritual as well as bodily diseases, that he may be restored to health both of body and soul, through the merits of Thy Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

From E.

For the Gifts of Repentance and Divine Absolution.

O God, Who wouldest have none to perish, but wouldest rather that all should come to repentance and live; Who so smitest the sinner, that Thy correction is only the forerunner of Thy love; Who, as a tender Shepherd, bringest back Thy lost sheep upon Thy shoulders into his proper fold, leaving the ninety and nine who had never strayed, to fetch back again that which had wandered from Thee; we most humbly entreat Thee that Thou wouldst vouchsafe in like manner to absolve Thy servant N.——, whom, having erred and strayed from Thy ways like a lost sheep, Thou hast brought low with sickness. Deal graciously with Thy servant, O Lord, take him by the arms, though he knows not that Thou healest him, and draw him unto Thee with bands of love, and speak peace unto his soul; let Thy loving mercy come also unto him, even Thy salvation, through the merits and intercession of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From E.

For an Infant.

LORD, pity the troubles and weakness of this our dear infant, and pity our sorrows, who are afflicted with him, and for him. Ease him of his pains, and strengthen him when he lies struggling for life. Raise him up again, if it shall please Thee, to grow in years and stature, in wisdom and virtue ; and thereby to comfort us, and glorify Thee.

We believe, O Almighty Father, that Thou knowest best what is fit, both for him and for us, and wilt do what is fit for both ; and therefore we leave it to Thee, to dispose of him as Thou pleasest. But whether it be to life or death, let him be Thine in both, and either preserve him to be Thy true and faithful servant here on earth, or take him to the blessedness of Thy children in heaven; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

From K.

A Prayer for either the Husband or Wife to use in the extreme Sickness of the other.

O LORD, Who killest and makest alive, Who bringest low and liftest up, there is none holy as Thou art, for there is none beside Thee; neither is there any rock like our God. I desire meekly to acknowledge Thy righteous hand in the heavy affliction with which Thou hast visited us through Thy servant my beloved husband (or, wife), who now seemeth to be nigh unto death. I know, O Lord, that Thy judgments are right, and that Thou of very faithfulness hast caused us to be troubled. I know that, because of my sins, I should be dumb before Thee, and not open my mouth; for this is Thy doing. Yet, Lord, Thou art very merciful, and full of compassion: Thou sparest when we deserve punishment; Thou retainest not Thine anger for ever, because Thou delightest in mercy. The desire of my heart is not hidden from Thee; Thou knowest how I shrink from the blow which is impending over me (and our dear children). I therefore cast myself upon Thy tender compassion, humbly praying that it may be Thy gracious will, if it seem fit unto Thee and for our greater good, mercifully to remove this stroke from Thy servant, who is well-nigh consumed by the blow of Thine hand. O let Thy loving mercies come unto him that he may live. Speak, Lord, the gracious word, which shall send health into his bones. Turn Thee, O Lord, and deliver his soul: O save him for Thy mercy's sake.

And yet, O heavenly Father, if Thou be pleased to determine otherwise concerning him, let us not repine; but dispose our hearts to a meek and quiet submission to Thy righteous will. O Lord, replenish his soul with the fulness of grace, and faith, and filial confidence in Thee, through the Son of Thy love; and lead him gently through the gates of death into Thy glad and glorious presence, through the prevailing merits and intercession of the same Thy beloved Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thanksgiving on Recovery from Sickness.

BLESS the Lord, O our souls, and all that is within us bless His holy Name, Who forgiveth all our iniquities, Who healeth all our diseases, Who redeemeth our life from destruction, and crowneth us with loving-kindness and tender mercies. Especially we render our grateful thanksgivings unto Thee at this time, O Lord, for the recovery of our dear N.—— from sickness. It is through Thy mercy, that this sickness has not been unto death. Let all Thy goodness be ever gratefully remembered by us. Let our faith be strengthened, our hope in Thee confirmed, and our love increased; and let us all with more devoted hearts, live henceforth to Thy praise, through Jesus Christ our Redeemer. Amen.

E. B.

Thanksgiving, on the Deliverance of a Child from an imminent Danger, to Life or Limb.

O MOST gracious and loving Father, enable us to give acceptable utterance to the praise and thankfulness which swells our hearts at the thought of Thy watchful care over our dear helpless babe (or, child) this day. We humbly and gratefully acknowledge Thy gracious hand which spared, though we are ever deserving of punishment. [Thou hast now for the second (or, third, &c.) time, in Thy great compassion and loving-kindness, preserved a child of Thy servants from a great and imminent hazard, which threatened a far heavier affliction than Thou hast in Thy tenderness permitted to befall us. We desire, O Lord, thankfully to recall that (or, those) former instance(s) of Thy mercy, and to renew our thanks for these, as well as all other innumerable proofs of Thy watchful protection.] O accept our thanksgiving for Thy great goodness to us, and grant that we may ever retain a more lively sense of Thy constant superintending Providence, which numbereth the very hairs of our heads, and without which not even a sparrow falleth to the ground. O fill our hearts with love to Thy glorious Name; and grant, O Lord, that the dear child (or, children) whom Thou hast mercifully snatched from danger, and all ours whom Thou preservest continually, may be brought up in Thy holy fear, and live to Thy glory, through our blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

A Prayer to be said in any Affliction, as the Death of Children, of Husband or Wife.

O ETERNAL God, Father of all mercies, and God of all comfort, with much mercy look upon the afflictions and sorrows of Thy servants. Thou hast removed my soul far from peace; I have forgotten prosperity:

And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the Lord!

My sins lie heavy upon me, and press me sore, and there is no health in my bones by reason of Thy displeasure and my sin. The waters are gone over me, and I stick fast in the deep mire, and my miseries are without comfort, because they are punishments of my sin: and I am so evil and unworthy a person, that though I have great desires, yet I have no disposition or worthiness toward receiving comfort. My sins have caused my sorrow, and my sorrow does not cure my sins: and unless, for Thy own sake, and merely because Thou art good, Thou shalt pity and relieve me, I am as much without remedy, as now I am without comfort.

But though Thou cause grief, yet wilt Thou have compassion according to the multitude of Thy mercies: for Thou dost not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.

Lord, pity me; Lord, let Thy grace refresh my spirit. Let Thy comforts support me, Thy mercy pardon me, and never let my portion be amongst hopeless and accursed spirits; for Thou art good and gracious; and I throw myself upon Thy mercy. Let me never let go my hold, and do Thou with me what seems good in Thine eyes. I cannot suffer more than I have deserved: and yet I can need no relief so great as Thy mercy is; for Thou art infinitely more merciful than I can be miserable; and Thy mercy, which is above all Thy own works, must needs be far above all my sins and all my misery. Oblessed Jesus, let me trust in Thee for ever, and let me never be confounded. Amen.

From J. T.

For Grace, Consolation, and Peace.

LORD God Almighty, bless me (and my dear children), and establish my heart by the abundant aids of Thy grace; be my Instructor in all good works; give me consolation, peace, and salvation; nourish in me all spiritual comforts; enlarge and strengthen my charity, and enable me to do and suffer whatever Thou shalt require of me: remove from me the guilt of those sins which I have committed, purify my soul, and defend me from all evil; and from all the machinations of my ghostly enemy. Lord, sanctify me throughout, that I may be lowly, perfect, and entire, both in body and soul; and be preserved blameless in both unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and be then received into His glorious kingdom, through the same Thy Son, our Anointed Saviour. Amen.
